1858; during the whole time I was unary, 1869, I was taken with a dreadful cough; the amount I raised in twenty-fours was incredible to tell; the doctors only gave temporary relief. I was advised to use Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. I commenced using it freely, and I can say, with a clear conscience, it has effected wonders. I am now able to work, which for eleven years I was incapable of. JAMES JOHNSON. Hammond River, N. B.

"Led Astray" is an admirable told story, and its scenes are a succession of situations of great dramatic force, satirical point and dainty humor, and is a first class success in unity and acting Take it altogether we have had no play on our stage this long while, combining such depth in the subject, with such skill in the treatment. It is a happy recurrence to Mr. Boucleault's best style. From the first to the last act interest is unflagging—it was a decided and electric success. A crammed house hung on the words of the author from the rising of the curtain to its going down—no one left, not even the blase critics.—New York Tribune.
