The Masters, Past Masters, Wardens and Brethren of the Lodges in the city, Dartmouth, and other parts of the Jurisdiction to the number of about 900 assembled at the Skating Rink.

Grand Lodge was opened in ample form in the Old Hall, Barrington Street.

The M. W. Grand Master announced to the brethren present that this Emergent Communication had been convened for the purpose of laying, with full Masonic Ceremonies, the corner stone of the new Freemasons' Hall, about to be erected on a part of the property in this city, owned by the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, and at the corner of Salter and Granville Streets.
