

It is very gratifying to the Session to note the fact that two more of our young men, Albert Briggs and James Duff, have gone to the Foreign Field to labor for the Master amongst the Heathen. We trust the presence of so many from our own congregation in the great Mission Fields of the world will draw forth more and more our sympathies and prayers, and that in due time others will follow in obedience to the Macedonian cry, and the Master's command.

The addition of five new members to the Session will greatly strengthen our hands, and enable us to overtake regular visitation to an extent hitherto impossible.

We trust our humble efforts in this direction will be appreciated, and that the congregation will help us in making such visitations as profitable as possible. We ask the hearty and prayerful co-operation of all in making this the most successful year in the Church's history.

Our large membership justifies such a hope.

There have been but three Communion services during the year—the regular order having been interrupted by the Pastor's absence. The fourth was postponed until January, 1891, and with the addition of members then added, the roll stands thus :—
