

excellence. One of the most important of his undertakings was the reopening in 1896, of Regiopolis Coll., Kingston, for the purpose of supplying the diocese with a native Canadian clergy, and for the education of Cath. boys for the liberal professions. He contributed $5,000 from his private purse towards a scholarship fund for this institution. In all, he has during the period of his Episcopate, given no less a sum than $50,000 for religious purposes in his diocese. In 1894 he erected a handsome monument over the remains of 1700 Irish immigrants who died of ship-fever at Kingston, 1847-48, and whose last resting place was previously unmarked.—The Palace, Kingston, Ont.

"An energetic and able administrator, a clever speaker and a scholar of high attainments."—Can. Gazette, Lond.

CLEGHORN, James Power, merchant, is the s. of the late Robt. Cleghorn, of Montreal, and was b. in that city, Oct. 3, 1830. Ed. at Howden and Taggart's Acad., where he had for schoolmates, Senators Hamilton and Ogilvie, and others who have since distinguished themselves in public life, he entered the mercantile firm of J. G. MacKenzie & Co., as a junior clk., 1853; he was admitted a partner, 1864, and has since for many yrs. been invested with the bulk of the management of that long established house. Notwithstanding the cares of business, he has found time to interest himself in many public enterprises, and his counsel has been sought in many directions. As Presdt. of the Montreal Bd. of Trade, 1889-90, he did not a little to promote the erection of the fine pile of buildings for the Bd. which were opened for occupation, 1893. He is a J. P. for Montreal, and on the directorate of the Intercl. Coal Co., of the Sun Life Assur. Co., of the Merchants' Manf. Co., of the Can. Accident Co., and of Molson's Bank, is a trustee of Mount Royal Cemetery Co., a gov. of the Montreal Genl. Hospital, and of the Montreal

Dispensary, and Presdt. of the Intercl. Coal Co. In politics, a staunch Con., he has never sought political or other preferment, although his name has been more than once mentioned in connection with positions of honour and dignity. He regards himself, and is proud to do so, as a simple private in the ranks, who has always upheld the party, in adversity as well as in success; and has stood for the N. P., Brit. Connection, and the general welfare of the people. In religious belief, a mem. of the Ch. of Eng., he is also a del. to the Synod. He m. 1864, Miss Anna Spalding, Port Hope, Ont.—185 University St., Montreal.

CLELAND, James, merchant and legislator, was b. in Glasgow, Scot., June 10, 1839, and came to Can., 1857, since when he has been engaged in business as a hardware merchant. He has been Reeve and Mayor of the town of Meaford, and, in 1886, unsuccessfully contested North Grey, in the Lib. interest, for the Ont. Assembly. He was returned at the g. e. 1890, and re-elected at the g. e. 1894.—Meaford, Ont.

CLEMENT, William Henry Pope, barrister and historian, is the s. of the late Rev. E. Clement (Meth.); and, on his mother's side, is connected with the Popes of P. E. I. Born at Vienna, Ont., May 13, 1858, he was ed. at the public schs., and, in 1873, won a scholarship at U. C. Coll. In the next year he matriculated in Arts at Toronto Univ. with 1st class honours in Classics, Math. and Mod. Languages. He graduated B.A., 1878. Whilst pursuing his Arts course, he studied law, having entered the Law Soc. U. C., 1875, and was called to the Ont. bar, 1880, standing first in his class. He also took the law course at Toronto Univ., winning a scholarship in each year and the gold medal on receiving the LL. B. degree from that institution, 1881. Mr. C. was for 7 yrs. a mem. of the well-known Toronto firm of McCarthy, Osler, Hoskin & Creelman, but since then he has