

---

 PLATES,

---

	PAGE
No. 1. Sketch of explorations in the Skeena and Peace River Districts...	1
No. 2. Profiles of the three routes explored between Fort Saskatchewan and Port Simpson.....	7
No. 3. Diagram of Profiles comparing the Canadian Pacific Railway with the four Trans-continental Railroads of the United States.....	12
No. 4. Plan of part of the Line of Location of the Canadian Pacific Railway, west of Lake Superior.....	24
No. 5. Map showing the geographical position of the Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraph, in relation to the submarine electric telegraphs between Asia, Australia, America and Europe .....	30½
No. 6. Longitudinal Section of Red River, from the City of Winnipeg to Lake Winnipeg, showing Submerged District during High Floods, &c. ....	270
No. 7. Map of the Prairie Region, distinguishing the general physical character of the country on the routes followed by different Explorers and Scientific Travellers.....	234
No. 8. Map of the Prairie Region, indicating generally the limits within which good land is known to exist between Manitoba and the Rocky Mountains ....	245

---