

Persons now entitled may obtain a licence.

XVI. All persons now resident in Upper Canada, and who might under existing laws obtain license to practise the medical profession therein, but who have neglected to do so, shall be entitled to license under the now existing law, if they apply within six months from the passing of this Act for the same.

5

Felony to forfeit Membership.

XVII. Any member of the said Corporation who shall have been convicted of any felony in any Court shall thereby forfeit his right to membership, and his name shall, at the next meeting of the Council of the College, be erased from their records or register.

Rights of licentiates.

XVIII. Every person becoming a licentiate under this Act shall be entitled to practise Medicine, Surgery and Midwifery, or either, or any of them in Upper Canada, and to demand and receive in any court of law, with full costs of suit, reasonable charges for professional aid and advice and visits, and the costs of any medicines or other medical or surgical appliances rendered or supplied by him to his patients.

Exemptions of practitioners.

XIX. Every licentiate or member of this Corporation, under the provisions of this Act, shall be exempt, if he shall so desire, from serving on all juries and inquests whatsoever, or from serving all municipal offices, and from serving in the militia, except professionally, and the name of such person shall not be returned in any list from which juries are struck.

20

Medical appointments to office to be made only from licentiates.

XX. After the passing of this Act no person shall be appointed as Medical Officer or Physician, or Surgeon in any public service, militia or otherwise, or in any hospital or other charitable institution not supported wholly by voluntary contributions, or any jail, unless he be a member under the provisions of this Act; nor shall any certificate required by any Act now in force, or that may hereafter be passed, from any Physician, Surgeon, or medical officer be valid, unless the person so making and signing the same shall have complied with the provisions of this Act.

Penalty for falsely pretending to be a licentiate.

XXI. Any person who shall wilfully and falsely pretend to be a member or licentiate of the Corporation hereby constituted, according to the full intent and meaning of this Act, or take, or use the name or title of a Physician, Doctor of Medicine, or Medical Practitioner or Surgeon, in such manner as to imply that he is such member or licentiate shall, upon conviction for each such offence, pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

35

Prosecutions under this Act, application of penalties.

XXII. Any penalty to which under this Act any person is liable, may be prosecuted for and recovered in the Court Quarter Sessions of the Peace—such penalty shall form part of the funds of the College, and shall be paid over to the President for the time being, who shall hand the same to the Treasurer, for the use and purposes of the said Corporation.

40

Public Act.

XXIII. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.
