		Page 4, Sheet 2.	0 ,
DATE a	TIME	SUMMARY OF EVENTS	REFERENCI TO
Ontario 8-2-41 (cor		connection was restored. During the morning Wr. Peterson C. (1)	APPENDICE
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		Enquirer wisited the State visited the Station in company with Mr. Dard of the Public Relations Bureau
		The Following Officers and three Sergeant Pilots visited the Station - Flight
		Lieutenant Saunders, Flight Lieutenant Atkinson, Flying Officer Fulkerson. The latter two Officers and the Sergeant Pilots returned to Toronto by train in the q	afternoon.	9
*
9-2-41		During the night the weather turned clear and cold. The heavy snowfell around the , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Hangars and on the taxi strips was finally cleared but no flying training took
	4	Flight Lieutenant Coventry, Flying Officer Rae, Flying Officer Pearson, Flying Officer
		Tufford and Pilot Officer Jones of the R.A.F. Station Charlottetown, P.F.I.	* * *
	1	to ferry Harvards to Montreal. Air Commodore G.O. Johnson, Deputy Chief of the Air	2 5
		Staff, paid an informal visit to the Station and was met by Group Captain McGill	8
		Squadron Leader Clappison visited the Station. Mr. Ward of the Dept. of Public Relations and Mr. Graham, Aviation Editor, of the New York Times visited in the late afternoon and were shown over the Station by Group Captain McGill The C.D. Howe, Minister of Munitions, Supply and Transport, and Commodore C.P. Edward Deputy Minister of Munitions, Supply & Transport, visited and were escented by 9-2-41 (co	8-2-41 (cont'd)	8-2-41 (cont'd) connection was restored. During the morning Mr. Peterman of the Philadelphia Enquirer visited the Station in company with Mr. Dard of the Public Relations Buresu The following Officers and three Sergeant Pilots visited the Station - Flight Lieutenant Saunders, Flight Lieutenant Atkinson, Flying Officer Fulkerson. The latter two Officers and the Sergeant Pilots returned to Toronto by train in the afternoon. 9-2-41 During the night the weather turned clear and cold. The heavy snowfall around the Hangers and on the taxi strips was finally cleared but no flying treining took place. Flight Lieutenant Coventry, Flying Officer Rae, Flying Officer Pearson, Flying Officer Tufford and Filot Officer Jones of the R.A.F. Station Charlottetown, P.E.I. reported to ferry Harvards to Montreal. Air Commodore G.O. Johnson, Deputy Chief of the Air Staff, paid an informal visit to the Station and was met by Group Captain McGill. Squadron Leader Clappison visited the Station. Mr. Ward of the Dept. of Public Relations and Mr. Graham, Aviation Editor, of the New York Times visited in the late afternoon and were shown over the Station by Group Captain McGill. The Mon. C.D. Howe, Minister of Munitions, Supply and Transport, and Commodore G.P. Exercic