Mr. Julius Henry Cohen,
111 Broadway,
New York.

Dear Mr. Cohen:

On my return from England yesterday, I found on my table your letter of June 26, and the copy of your book, "An American Labor Policy", which you have so kindly sent me with your compliments.

It will give me the greatest pleasure to read this book, and to write you again just as soon as I have had opportunity of so doing. I am sending this note simply as an acknowledgment of the receipt of the book and your letter, and that you may understand why, owing to my absence in Europe, my thanks were not immediately conveyed.

Appreciating exceedingly your kindness in presenting me with an Author's copy of a work which I know is certain to be of the first value to industry and the problems of government thereof.

I am, with kind personal regards,

Yours very sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
