

present darkness of injustice & class divisions, into a day of clearer vision & less selfish outlook.

My husband & I have been reading your book, it is with light reading of course, so though we have been at it for some little time, it is not yet finished. So far it seems to us the fairest approach to the capital & labour problem we have yet seen.
So many expositions on this subject are selfinterested on the one side or the other. It is so hard to get away from the little

42952

8211 Rowland Rd.,
"Forest Heights" Ottawa,
September 22, 1919.

Dear Mr. King,

I have been waiting to write & tell you how glad I am that you have been chosen as Leader of the Liberal Party, not because it is a party, but because I believe you are the man Canada needs in these dangerous times. I believe you will before long be given the opportunity to lead your country through the