Dr. Robert F. Foerster,
Emerson Hall,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of August 25, addressed to the Director of the New York School of Philanthropy, has been referred to this library for reply.

I regret that your request is not quite clear to me. Do I understand that you wished information in regard to the School of Philanthropy specifically, and any investigations made by its instructors or students? This of course could best be furnished by the School.

We will be very glad indeed to send you any material which we can furnish that will be helpful to you. I am afraid that without fuller information ~~any~~ lists of organizations which we could make up, would probably be duplication of material already in your possession.

Trusting that you will call upon us for any cooperation which we can give, we are

Very truly yours,

Elizabeth L. Black
Asst. Librarian.
