

King was in power. It is up when we are in power because we have gone along a safe, sane path. We have done the best for everybody under the Imperial Agreement at Ottawa in 1933 and getting safe markets for the Dominion for five years.

Yet Mr. Campbell, or listen what Mr. Fraser said when he made the statement that if the Liberals went into power, the Imperial Economic Agreement would be terminated. Every other country in the world has a barrier against you. You have a good safe market, why not stay with it.

As far as I am personally concerned, there may be reckless statements regarding Mr. Aylesworth. It is easy at this time to make charges, without foundation, and without having regard and the result that they may have, but I hope you will all have the courage and spirit of the County. I make no apology tonight in talking about the progress and prosperity that has been made in this country by the Right Honourable R.B. Bennett and those who are associated with him. I say now that on election day I sincerely hope and ask you to go to the polls and support Mr. Aylesworth as the next member for Frontenac-Addington.

HON. H.H. STEVENS.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:- I may say that I had no idea I was going to be driving here tonight. My trip has been a hurried one indeed. I am delighted to have the opportunity of meeting you old Kingston friends. In coming out tonight, I did not know where they were taking me. I think the driver was sober, but he rather puzzled me the way we were winding up and down.

While I do not know the candidate personally until tonight, there is represented in this district a class of Canadian citizenship of which anyone should be proud. I can make appeals to you tonight, being based upon common sense, which I hope will meet with very careful response.

It is, of course, my duty and pleasure to support your citizen Mr. Aylesworth. His reputation has never known a blemish and one that anyone could be proud of. He is con-
