A. I took the army call to the lumber company and then just waited till they wrote for a postponement for me.

Q. Do you know whether or not they did?

A. Yes, they did sir.

Q. And did you get a postponement of service?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For how long?

A. For six months, sir.

Q. And for the duration of that six months, did you work for the Storess Lumber company?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And did you get another army call at the expiration of that time?

A. I just received word from the government that my postponement had been extended.

Q. Had you made application for extension?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did anyone else?

A. No, sir.

Q. How much longer did you work for the Storess Lumber Company?

A. Until last fall, sir. The fall of '43.

Q. All this time was your wife still living in this auto camp?

Weg-sir

A. No, sir. We moved to Coleman.

Q. Did you rent rooms in this house?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you occupy them all?

A. No, sir.

We come to the fall of '43. Your family was still living in Coleman and you just quit working for the Storess Lumber Company. Now, what did you do?

A. I couldn't stand truck driving for awhile on account of my back so I went logging.

Q. With whom?

A. I had my own contract with the Burmess Lumber Company.
