

Q. About two weeks would you say roughly?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At this time you were logging in there and you had your wife in to cook for the crew, what kind of quarters did your wife have?

A. We had one big room, sir.

Q. Was that all?

A. No, sir. No, sir, we put this building against the cook house. At the other end of the Cook house we had a bunk house for the men.

Q. Were your family quite comfortable?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they satisfied there?

A. It used to get cold at night but it was not too bad.

Q. How much money did you make from the time you went in until the time you went out on this lumber deal?

A. I got one cheque for 480 dollars.

Q. What were your expenses with regard to this cheque?

A. My expenses for groceries and food for the horses amounted to 300 dollars. I cleared 180 dollars.

Q. Did you manage to save any of that money?

A. No, sir.

Q. At the time you were called up in May, 1944, this year, did you have any money to your credit anywhere?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Approximately how much?

A. About 100 dollars, sir.

Q. So you came in and joined the Canadian Army on the 8th of May, 1944?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you at District Depot very long?

A. About a week, sir.

Q. What did you do there that week? Were you training?

A. No, sir. It took about four days before I got my uniform.
