

EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

- Q119. - You say that the accused was sitting when you came into the Battalion Orderly Room and he appeared to be pretty drunk. The Court would like to know how you came to that conclusion?
- A119. - He had been drinking.
- Q120. - Everything you say must be a fact that was witnessed by yourself. You say the accused appeared to be pretty drunk. How did you come to that conclusion?
- A120. - He wobbled a bit.
- Q121. - Did you have any conversation with the accused at that time?
- A121. - Only when he told me to keep this quiet and not tell anyone as it was between the three of us.
- Q122. - When did he tell you to keep it quiet?
- A122. - When he said, "DOUCET, you can do anything to me, fuck me, anything you like and I will blow you. DOUCET, you will sleep with me", he turned around and said to me, "Keep this quiet, this is between the three of us", or words to that effect.
- Q123. - You said you slept in the Battalion Orderly Room that night, is that where you usually sleep?
- A123. - Yes sir, it is in orders.
- Q124. - When DOUCET called you over to the head of the bed, did he specify the head of the bed?
- A124. - Yes, sir.
- Q125. - You say that he said to come to the head of the bed?
- A125. - Yes sir, he pointed to the head of the bed.
- Q126. - Did DOUCET actually indicate to you that he wanted you to come to the head of the bed?
- A126. - Yes, because I nodded to him that I had seen everything, because when I came from the lavatory and sat on the side of my bed I could see everything. He then called me.
- Q127. - You nodded to him when he called you over?
- A127. - Yes, sir.
- Q128. - Did you see the accused consuming any liquor that night?
- A128. - No sir, He refused a drink offered to him by DOUCET.
- Q129. - Who was the owner of the bottle?
- A129. - Sgt JOHNSON was the owner of the bottle.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENCE

- Q130. - Who was the first person you told about Sgt JOHNSON playing with DOUCET's penis, working it backwards and forwards?
- A130. - The R.S.M.
- Q131. - Whom?
