

similar to mine and I was the only one who had BC's.

- Q. How do you know that?
A. I was the only one with BC's. The rest drew Buckingham.
- Q. How long have these cigarettes been on issue to the CGM Army?
A. I couldn't say, sir.
- Q. You say you were the only one to have BC's because you drew them and nobody else did?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is there any reason why Stanley shouldn't have BC's?
A. Because he had all his stolen.
- Q. He might have had BC's before. You don't know whether he had any BC's or not?
A. I don't know. I knew he didn't have any at that time.
Everybody else had Buckinghams or Wings at that time.
- Q. Is there any reason why a friend might have given him
BC's a week or so ago before this?
A. They might have.
- Q. Then they might have been Stanley's?
A. Yes. They could be.
- Q. When you were on watch you were on on the night of 7 Aug 46?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. No one came in while you were on watch?
A. No sir.
- Q. Spr Stanley and Pierce remained in the building all night?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. You say you saw Stanley come into the house the next afternoon and he went into the cupboard?
A. I heard sounds of him going into the cupboard.
- Q. You heard rustling of paper?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. How far was the cupboard from you?
A. Directly below.
- Q. You could hear paper rustling?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. You heard a stove opening and closing?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. What did you do when he went out?
A. I went down and found that 3 packages had been taken.
- Q. Did you look into the stove?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. What was there?
A. An empty carton such as one of those (points to Exhibits
"ONE" and "ONE A").
- Q. When you asked Stanley if he had any cigarettes where was this?
