ALLOW us to direct your attention to the advertising pages that appear in this book. They contain cards of many of the leading merchants and business men of this City, through whose generous assistance we have been enabled to publish this souvenir. We would kindly request you to read all the advertisements carefully, and when you are in need of any article therein mentioned, please call on the firms that have so nobly aided us. Your patronage will be highly appreciated, and we do not hesitate to guarantee you perfect satisfaction.
