

New Brunswick.—Or, on waves a lymphad, or ancient galley with oars in action, proper on a chief gules a lion passant guardant Or; which means in the upper third part of the shield, a gold lion on a red ground; in the lower two-thirds of shield, an ancient black galley, waves blue, sky gold.

---

The three other Provinces now forming part of the Dominion were admitted into Confederation as follows:—Manitoba on 15th July, 1870; British Columbia on 20th July, 1871; and Prince Edward Island on 1st July, 1873. The Arms of these several Provinces, not yet by proper authority added to the Dominion Coat-of-Arms, appear to be:—

Manitoba.—In the upper third part of shield, the red cross of St. George, background of silver; in the lower two-thirds of shield, a buffalo running, proper colour for buffalo, background green.