

C O N T E N T S

or

THE SECOND VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

The party attacked by the natives at the Wallah Wallah River—Two killed—Encamp on an island for safety—Indians demand two white men as a sacrifice—Arrival of a chieftain;—His speech, and peace restored 1

CHAPTER II.

Author and party lost in a snow-storm—Curious instance of mental abstraction—Poor Ponto—Arrive at Spokane House—A marriage—Great ravine—Agates—Hot-springs—Kitchen garden—Indian manner of hunting the deer—Method adopted by the wolves for the same purpose—Horse-racing—Great heat 28

CHAPTER III.

Letter from Mr. Stuart—His account of New Caledonia—Navigation of the Columbia obstructed by ice—Miserable situation of the party during the winter—Author frost-bitten—Amusements—Departure of Mr. Keith—His letters—Author and party quit their winter encampment—Rapid change of seasons—Arrive at Fort George 50