Report of the Superintendent.

To the Members of the Congregation of Dominion Methodist Church, Ottawa.

DEAR FRIENDS—In reviewing our work for the past year, we find many reasons for gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the manifold blessings which we, as a Sunday School, have been the recipients of.

We thank you very heartily for the generous support you have given us, so that we are relieved from all financial embarrassment and we now possess a well stocked library, which has been largely increased during the year. We have lately made the Missionary Work prominent; and this has been directed not only to the work of
