

One of Mr. Haberer's late August swarms, large enough to fill a 10-frame hive. Two months later it was not more than a small nuclei. (See page —.)

Februa

like be
bee-kee
ally oc
had mo
each of
as bad
few sw
were no
every d
August
hanging
other w
closely.
not know
of them
with a fl
filled wit
were mos
swarming
for winte
they cove
if we lose
is not so n
old bees.
with the p
all young
badly in th
One thing
onies will b
the spring.
in the cells
out-yard I
vent this sv
it, as the e
more than t
there is too
at that time
old queens
queen-cells i
August, and
a young layi
out the same
upon in my y
of this swarm
gin took her
eases the que
clustered and
and if hived w
We do not u
yet.

Zurich, Ont.