

- 10 November Last round fired in this position
at 4 a. m. By Gnr. Malcolm M^c
Donald. from B. Sub Gun —
Sergt. H. D. Roper No. 1.
- 11 „ Armistice — Suspension of hostilities 11 a. m.
- 15 „ Thulin.
The 2nd. Brigade Artillery marches to Germany and the Rhine
as part of the Army of occupation and following are the names of places at which the 6th. Battery rested en route and dates of arrival.
- 18 November Thulin to Jerbise to
- 19 „ Soignies.
- 21 „ Écoussines.
- 24 „ Loncée.
- 25 „ Sauvenière.
- 27 „ Hingeon.
- 28 „ Andenelle.
- 30 „ Borsu.
- 2 December Herbet.
- 3 „ Bressine.
- 4 „ Ennal.
- 6 „ Crossed the Belgium -- Germany frontier at hamlet of Poteau at 1.20 p. m.
Born.

“Guard Duty . . . is very tecknickle. For instance you walk a post but there ain’t no post. An you mount Guard but you don’t really mount nothin. An you turn out the Guard but you don’t really turn ’em out.
They come out themselves.”