Indictments. Against Three Wardlaws

PROCEEDINGS BRIEF

Evidence of Handwriting Expert Not Made Public

NEW YORK, N.Y., Dec. 22.-The hree mysterious Wardlaw sisters must ace trial in Essex County, N.J., all charged with the murder of Ocey W. M. Snead, the East Orange bath-tub victim. Much as a matter of course. the Essex County grand jury filed into court at Newark to-day and reported that two indictments had been found against all three. The proceedings before the grand jury were brief. Chief of Police Bell East Orange, told of finding the body; William J. Kinsley, a handwriting expert, told of the "suicide notes" he examined, but just what he swore to was not made public, while physicians testified as to the condition of the body.

BLUEFIELDS, Dec. 21-The revoltionists under command of Gener Estrada, have completely routed t Zelayan forces near Rama. Estra has captured Recreo, Vasquez's stron est position and he has been victorio all along the line, which stretches : a distance of eight miles.

Yesterday the forward movement b gan, detachments being sent out und Generals Luis Mena, Fornes Diaz, A fredo Diaz, Chamorro and Matuty. was General Mena's task to outflan Gonzales, who directed the defence of the great body of the governme troops. These in large numbers wer well entrenched, but Estrada's follow ers were armed with the latest equip ment and machine gums were brough into play to clear the trenches. The casualties on the government side wer high, the greatest execution being don-

Among those in the revolutiona ranks was Captain Godfrey Fowler formerly of the 33rd Infantry, U. S. A who was in command of the artiller on the firing line. MANAGUA, Dec. 21.-Jose Madriz was inaugurated to-day as president of Nicaragua. The ceremony was held at the Palace instead of at the par liament meeting. Ex-president Zelaya was kept waiting fifteen minutes ! Dr. Madriz, who entered companied by Julian Irias, ministergeneral. Zelaya, who wore the Order of the Legion of Honor, made a brief speech saying: "I entreat the Nicaraguans to rally to the support of President Madrizwho has made a vow for the early termination of the fratricidal war. I wish to pay tribute to the ability and integrity of my successor. I am confident that his administration will be beneficial."

No demonstration attended the ceremony, but the words of the president were greeted with applause. In accepting office he said: "I assume the presidency unmoved by personal ambition, but by the spirit of a good son going to the rescue of his beloved mother, harassed and imperilled. I shall not be able to restore peace and prosperity unaided, and I ask for the assistance of all true patriots. My aim shall be to make Nicaragua a united family and my only programme peace with honor, justice and liberty, and the maintenance of friendly relations with foreign nations

The oath of office was administered by the president of Congress, after which salutes were fired by the artillery, accompanied by the ringing of church bells. Later groups of men paraded the streets crying "Death to Zelaya," "Vive Estrada."
