

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink; and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT

Given At the First Baptist Church.

The First Baptist Church was crowded to the doors last night when a popular concert was given by the choir, assisted by Mr. Albert Greenlaw, basso, Detroit.

Quite one of the features of the evening consisted of the organ solos rendered by Mr. J. H. Schofield, organist and conductor. He displayed notable mastery of the instrument from the Toccata and Fugue in D minor by Bach, to the lighter numbers, such as "Mountain Reverie," and a Gavotte. He was deservedly most heartily applauded.

The choir rendered "Send Out Thy Light," and "By Babylon's Wave," both Gounod numbers. They manifested an excellent balance of tone, and were equally at home in the Fortissimo and Pianissimo passages.

Mr. Greenlaw rendered several solos and received an enthusiastic encore for each. He has never been heard to better advantage in this city, and delighted everyone.

Altogether the evening was thoroughly enjoyable from every point of view.

Hugh Collins, an attendant in Matewan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, was arrested following the charge that he killed to death William Bankowski, a patient.

A tiny edition of Billie Burke was ushered into the world in the Hotel Ansonia, New York, yesterday. From late reports, both mother and daughter are progressing favorably.

Miss Ethel Sears, who has been visiting for the past two months at her home on Peel street, has returned to New York City.

WILL CONSIDER ST. PAULS AVE. SUBWAY

Assurance Given Mayor Bowlby That G.T.R. Will Look Into Project.

CROSSING QUESTION

Posting of Guards at Crossings May Not Be Necessary.

The question of the Grand Trunk Railway crossing at Colborne and Market streets, and at St. Paul's Avenue, was reopened by a conference held in the city yesterday in which Mr. Mountain, chief engineer of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners, high officials of the Grand Trunk Railway and Mayor Bowlby and the members of the railway committee of the city council participated.

The three dangerous crossings were inspected, and those present were unanimous in declaring that if the order forbidding trains to exceed a speed of six miles within the city were strictly enforced, there would be practically no danger, and no watchman would be necessary at the Colborne and Market street crossings.

On account of the street railway crossing at Colborne street, it would be necessary to maintain the watchman, but the expenses, thought Mr. Mountain should be equally borne by the city and the railway company.

As to the city assuming all the responsibility in the event of an accident, was declared by the representative of the railway board to be entirely out of the question. In regard to the proposed St. Paul's Avenue subway the whole question was thoroughly reviewed.

Mr. Mountain gave the assurance that the fullest consideration would be given the matter by the board and a settlement would be arrived at within the next two weeks.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-achy or Have Bladder Trouble—Take a Glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation thus ending bladder troubles which cannot be cured by medicine. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Is Message Delivered By Rev. C. E. Jenkins at Paris Last Night.

ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Other Paris Items of Interest to Local Readers.

Paris, Oct. 27.—(From our own correspondent)—Last evening about twenty young ladies of the Philaetha class in connection with the Methodist Church, motored over to St. George and paid Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Brandon a surprise visit. A real jolly evening was spent in games and music and light refreshments were served, which were provided by the members. The happy gathering broke up about mid-night. Several friends of the class kindly loaned their cars for the occasion.

Pte. Coxall Killed
In a letter received by Mrs. Alex. Earles from her son, Pte. John Earles, of the 125th Battalion. He states that their friend, Pte. Thomas Coxall, of the 84th, had been killed in action. Pte. Coxall is well known to many in town, having resided on Elm street, and was a great football player.

Pte. Webster.
Pte. Chas. Webster, who has also been reported killed is known to many in Paris, as for many years he was employed in the Penman Mills, before going West. Pte. Webster enlisted with the 7th Brandon Battalion and was later transferred to the 76th Canadian Highlanders.

Last evening a most interesting and instructive illustrated lecture was given in St. James' Parish Hall, by Capt. (Rev.) Jenkins, Chaplain of the 58th Battalion. The lecture was given in the hall of St. James' Church, Brantford, and has recently returned home from the Flanders. Captain Jenkins, as he is known in military circles, showed some 80 slides, presenting many interesting views from Belgium, France and England, and other places of note. He spoke of the trip they had from Canada to France and the kind attention paid the men by the English people. Since his return, he said he had noticed a marked slackening of interest among the people at home, and impressed upon them the vital necessity of increased efforts. He also emphasized the great necessity there was for socks. After dealing with their life in the camp at England, he took his hearers over to France and spoke of the discomforts of the marches and nights on the cold tile floors. Then came the horrors of the field dressing-station, when he would be called upon to command the soul of some poor mortally wounded soldier, to the keeping of God, and then to go on to the next man and still on, for there were hundreds of others who required a Chaplain's assistance. Chaplain Jenkins referred with much emphasis to the entire absence of creed at the firing line in the presence of death. There, all denominations work together and creeds are obliterated; Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Roman Catholics, and Anglicans work together and matters might if the dead soldier is a Protestant or Catholic, he is buried by the first Chaplain to be had.

During his address various parts of a Chaplain's regalia was exhibited including a Communion set, gas helmet, tear shed protectors, etc. At the close a hearty note of thanks was given the lecturer by Mr. T. Scott Davidson, M.P.P. and seconded by Dr. Danton, both gentlemen stating that it was the finest lecture on the war they had listened to. During the evening solos were given by Mr. Geo. Foster and Mr. Harold Brown.

Among the recent graduates of the Brantford General Hospital we noticed the name of Miss C. Pearl Robinson, youngest daughter of Mrs. A. Robinson. Her many Paris friends

LOVED BY ALL HIS CONGREGATION

Lieut. the Rev. H. J. Fenton, 84th, Recently Killed in Action.

WAS A CLERGYMAN

Hamilton Officer Who Bore Great Popularity Here.

Hamilton, Oct. 7.—Somewhere in France rests the body of Lieut. (Rev.) Hubert J. Fenton, a Hamilton soldier, who, while performing his duties in the great struggle for freedom, fell a victim of a German shot on October 17. He is the son of David J. and Mrs. Fenton, 141 Avondale avenue, and was born in this city 32 years ago. Practically all his life was spent here, and when a young boy he attended the public schools of this city and then entered the Collegiate Institute. He then attended Toronto University, later entering the ministry, and had several posts. He was located at Dyer's Bay in the northern county and also at Kettle Church, Owen Sound. From there he took another college course and later went to Midway. While there the war broke out and he was applied for a commission with the overseas forces, and was taken into the 84th battalion. He came here shortly before going overseas to bid farewell to his parents, and also addressed the members of the Barton street Methodist church, as he was a member of that church since his boyhood days. In speaking of his death this morning the Rev. F. W. Hollinrake, pastor of the church, said "I knew him when a very young boy. He attended the first service in the old church, and I have watched his progress with pride. He was a manly fellow from the time I knew him, and the news of his death touches me very deeply. He was loved by all who knew him, and all the members of my congregation, had nothing but good words to say about this hero, whose life was full of happiness, but who endured hardships and gave his life for loved ones at home."

Never have we shown such a beautiful range of splendid shirts. May we have the pleasur of Show-you? The prices are easy to pay.

Considerable business was transacted at the weekly meeting of the Red Cross Society. The above society have decided to canvas the town on Nov. 10th, as they are anxious to raise money to help along the Red Cross work. They have sent $300 to Red Cross as well as other supplies. A Christmas parcel will be sent to all our soldier boys at the front consisting of candy, towels, soap, socks, etc. Those having relatives and friends overseas are asked to send names and address to the society, so that none of our boys will be forgotten.

Mrs. S. M. Green, Willow street, has diagnosed of her home and contents to Mr. Ira Wooden who has taken possession.

Mrs. R. McCammon has returned to her home at Phoenix, B.C., after spending the past two months with relatives in town.

Mr. P. Sowden of Simcoe, is holidaying with relatives in London.

Mrs. S. M. Green left this week with her sister for California, where she will in future reside.

UNITED STATES WARFARE

Lord Beresford Warships Raid Com traitly

London, Oct. 27.—Some of the feeling that the American warships in the German submarine U-boat American coast around breach of neutrality day in the House of Lord Beresford and Baron Sydenham is rec the country as the spoils of the navy in the House of Lord Sydenham's various have included the various books on naval affairs.

Baron Beresford stated that American ships appear to be quite within of neutrality, and that the British were bound to observe this fact.

The submarine brought forward by Lord who asked if the parties sinking of the British steamer and the others had been in accordance with pledge to the United States to the "activities under the very eyes of the navy," and to the decision President Wilson which in the German pledge.

ham declared: "Even the plots of the U-53 that torn to shreds. Yet the of the United States has sign whatever, that the neutral ships goes on all day. The Norwegians have vessels in this one must small neutrals (this powerful representative) warships abetted?"

No life, he said, was of the presence of American ships. Lord Sydenham to tion that the presence warships actually enabled to defy what he said. Pr son had described as a indisputable rule of law.

Baron Beresford expressed the opinion that Germany bringing America into the to be able to say she co
