ELECTION ON DEC. 17

To-day Will See Issue of Writs for Dominion Voting

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—It was officially announced at the close of yesterday's meeting of the Cabinet Council that the election day had been fixed for Monday, Dec. 17, with nominations four weeks earlier, namely, Nov. 19. The Yukon election will be on January 28, with nomination on December 31.

The writs will be issued to-morrow for most of the constituencies, but there may be a delay of a day or two naming returning officers in a few ridings where no agreement is yet made in regard to the endorsed Union candidates. The writs are issued to the returning officers, and the naming of the latter is dependent in large degree upon the recommendation of the endorsed candidate of the Government.

DOUBLE TENTON THREAT FACES ITALY'S ARMIES

Two Strong Enemy Movements are Developing on Lower Isonzo—Foè Claims 120,000 Prisoners and Over 1,000 Guns

Paris, Oct. 31.—One of the latest developments of the Austro-German action against Italy affords a pretty clear understanding of their strategy and its objectives. The new Austrian army, under von Krobatin, have moved southwestward from the Carinthian Alps, on the extreme right, and is attacking German positions which defend the upper reaches of the Agglamento River at a point fifty kilometers north of Udine. The enemy plan is clearly to cross the river at this point, thus outflanking the Italian line of defence further south. At the same time the Fourteenth German Army, under von Eudow, is pushing southwestwards from Udine in an attempt to nail the Italian force from Carso and southern Isonzo in their retreat along the narrow passage still open along the sea coast. The Italians are thus doubly threatened.

Serious Situation.

In the south von Eudow may compromise their withdrawal to Tagliamento in the north—even when that retreat is successfully accomplished—von Krobatin may turn the whole Tagliamento line and force a general retreat towards Venice. In short, the Austro-Germans have succeeded in re-establishing the classical war of strategy to their own advantage.

It is useless to deny that Italy's position is serious. On the other hand, every mile that the Italians retreat, brings them nearer their reserves, which will throw an enormous numerical superiority in their favor. Secondly, the news from Rome shows that the heart of Italy is sound, that all the disunion has been forgotten in the common danger, and that the possibility of creating international political weakness—which is said to be one of the enemy's principal objectives—has disappeared.

Tentons Claim 120,000 Prisoners.

London, Oct. 31.—(Canadian Press Despatch.) There were various military authorities, and between the Italians and the invading Austro-German troops yesterday, says the Italian War Office announcement to-day. The Italian covering units and cavalry permitted the other troops to continue to move towards their new line.

The Italian War Office to-day called to the colors all classes from 1874 to 1899.

The number of Italians made prisoner by the Austro-German army has increased to over 120,000, says the German official communication issued this evening. The communication adds that more than 1,000 guns also have been taken.

The campaign on the Italian front is being developed in strict accordance with the intention of the Austro-German leaders, the German War Office reported earlier to-day.

Helmsman Behavior Brave.

Some of the engagements yesterday occurred on the hills of St. Daniele del Friuli and others along the Ledra Canal, the Italian statement shows. (The town of St. Daniele del Friuli is approximately 12 1-2 miles northwest of Udine and only about three and three-quarter miles east of the Tagliamento River, along which it is believed the Italians intend to make a stand.)

The text of the statement reads: "During yesterday various engagements took place on the hills of St. Daniele del Friuli, along the Ledra Canal at Pasion Chivavonico, and at Pozzuolo del Friuli.

"The brave behavior of our covering units and cavalry has permitted the other troops to continue their movement towards positions on the new line.

Some Secrecy Essential.

Italy, Oct. 30, 6 p.m.—(By the Associated Press.)—Everything for the moment has had to yield to military necessities, and this will explain the lack of details, which can now be given briefly, concerning one of the most momentous phases of the war. The Supreme Command has no desire to keep the facts from the American, British or foreign people, but in such a supreme moment its first consideration is not to permit details which can afford the enemy the slightest clue either to what has occurred or what is in store.

One of the Commanding Officers informed the correspondent that the public should be placed on guard against reports which doubtless will be spread from scattered information. The fact is, those who have actually witnessed the recent stupendous drama are extremely few outside of the military authorities, and all their secretiveness, like the correspondent, are gladly respecting the decision which the Supreme Command feels the situation requires. Within these narrow limitations a few salient facts can be given.

General Cadorna's bulletin has struck the keynote of the main operation, in stating:

"The violence of their attack and inadequate resistance broke our left wing on the Julian front."

before the medal board. The room was very cold, two electric fans were going and three windows were open.

Dr. Johnson last evening received the report of the police on the matter and shortly after he instructed Coroner Louden to hold an investigation into Bartlett's death. The evidence adduced at this investigation, which will not be before a jury, will be submitted to the Attorney-General for further instructions.

Dr. J. W. Wigham, who attended young Bartlett, stated yesterday that the facts of the case are that the deceased went to the armories in good health and there contracted a chill which developed into pneumonia. The pneumonia was broken up, but it resulted in weakening his heart and caused his death.

Chief Coroner Johnson said yesterday that he considered the case was one for the Crown to investigate, but Mayor Church was of the opinion that it was within the jurisdiction of Dr. Johnson. As regards the military authorities, he said, they are too much given over to red tape. They have been provided with all kinds of accommodation for the city and should have made better use of it. He would bring the matter before Major-General Newburn, the new Minister of Militia, he said. His Worship said he would also get action from Coroner Johnson. The city pays him a big salary and it is up to him to take action in a case of this kind. The Mayor thought proper places should be provided for the examination of draftees, so that their lives would not be endangered while they are endeavoring to comply with the law of the land.

REPLACE STAINED GLASS

By Courier Lensed Wire.

Amsterdam, Oct. 31.—The stained glass windows of the Cologne Cathedral, according to German newspapers, are being replaced by plain glass as a precaution in case of air raids.

The Cologne Cathedral is one of the most magnificent Gothic edifices in the world. Some of its stained glass windows date from 1503, but most of them are modern. The older windows are among the finest examples of early sixteenth century art.

WILL ASK CORONER TO HOLD INQUEST

Claim Draftee Dead as Result of Chill Contracted at Armories

Toronto, Nov. 1.—Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnson, Chief Coroner of Toronto, will be directed by Mayor Church to hold an inquest into the death of W. J. A. Bartlett, which, according to Bartlett's parents, is due to pneumonia, contracted by the young man while waiting naked, for a period of two hours at the Armories, to undergo medical examination. Bartlett died on Saturday at the residence of his father, 26 Mechanic Avenue, and was buried on Tuesday afternoon in Prospect cemetery. The father of the deceased, Richard Bartlett, states that his son went to the armories for physical examination on October 4. "When he came home that evening he complained of feeling cold. The following Sunday he was suffering from a heavy cold and two days later was so ill that he could not attend to his work as a mail carrier. That day he was obliged to take to bed and he never afterwards left it. Mr. Bartlett, senior, says that his son told him that he had to sit around for a period of about two and a half hours without any clothes, awaiting his appearance

RUSSIA EXHAUSTED

Country Vicer King Longe

Petrograd, Thursday, Nov. 1.—Russia is worn strain of war and help. President told the Associate said that Russia right that the other should shoulder which she has borne. Russia, the press has been fighting months longer than and Russia has felt alone and is. The world must in the Russian cause it is an error, the premier right to feel distressed, because it takes America's money. Russia is boots, leather, iron. Premier Kerensky is impossible for Russia to send to the front. Russia would be too great. Kerensky said, in reports to the committee. "Russia has not only since the beginning of the war saved France and disaster early in the now worn out by claims as her right Allies now should be." Thus the Premier's position is not to be responded. The seated in the liberal private office, in the Winter correspondent said to widely contrast on Russian condition the premier for a moment of the fact. "It has been soldiers returning and elsewhere, among the people, but generally, by virtually out of the explained. "Is Russia out Premier Kerensky that," he answered cautious question, "ing an enormous war." One has on her history. Russia war for the Allies was "already fighting was only preparing was only observing." "Russia is the the whole brunt of thereby saving of and France. Peace she is out of the memories of the past. The since the beginning must now take of the burden on hers. "At present Russia is greatly agitated. "Where is the fleet, now that the out in the Baltic?" "Russia is worn out," she has been a half year longer. "Could any army to Russia, would be impossible," said Kerensky. "The situation of transport are too great." "If America can what would be the for her to help Russia and," the premier said.
