ACCIDENT IN OIL FIELD?

A report was circulated in town to-day to the effect that three men were killed in the Tilbury oil fields. Later it was taid that one man was burned by gas.

The Planet called up Mr. Park, of Merlin, at three o'clock this afternoon and he said the people of Merlin knew nothing about it. A man had spread a report in Merlin that there was an accident, and later a man from the oil field arrived and denied that there was any accident at all.

at all.

Dr. Bell, of Merlin, said this afternoon to The Planet, over the phone, that the reported accident in the Tilbury oil field was without foundation. It is reported on seemingly good authority, that there was a burning accident in Romney last night. at all.

HARBORED LOST DOG

H. W. Ball lost a thoroughbred

H. W. Ball lost a thoroughbred fox terrier recently, and though he has advertised for the return of the animal no trace has yet been found of the missing dog.

Mr. Ball, however, got word this morning that the dog had been seen by different parties on Sunday, when it was following an elderly man and a boy. The parties are known, and if they persist in harboring the animal, legal proceedings may be taken to recover it.
