THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 23, 1897.

Local and Provincial.

The Foresters' Excursion will be a delightful one; don't miss it.

Rev. W. B. Wallace will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church, of this town, next Sunday morning and evening.

What would Wolfville be if it wasn't for the dust? Why it would be a most delightful place to spend the summer.

In another column will be found the card of Dr. G. N. Murphy, the well known specialist of Yarmouth. He proposes coming to Wolfville for a few days each month.

Rev. Isaiah Wallace has disposed of his property on Prospect street to Mr. Clark Gormley. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will in future live with their son, at Lawrence town.

The latest thing in Men's Caps. See window, Glasgow House.

Mr. Messenger has had a marquee erected on the American House lawn. In the evenings the lawn is lit up with the electric light, and looks very cool and inviting to the tired people from the city.

Haying operations have been carried on briskly this week. The weather has been most favorable, and hay has been got up in prime condition. The haying season has been delayed a little owing to the wet spring.

A box of flowers, from the W. C. T. U. Flower Mission, is sent every week to Halifax for distribution in the Hospital and among the sick poor. Contributions of flowers will be most gratefully received, by the committee in charge, at the vestry of the Baptist church at early hour every Monday afternoon.

Paris Green, Sticking and Poisonous Paper at F. J. PORTER'S.

Professor E. E. Faville, who has been Director of the N. S. School of Horticulture since its inception three years ago, has been offered the chair of Horticulture in the State College of Agriculture, Manhattan, Kansas. He will probably accept. There were a large number of applicants for the position.

FOR SALE.—A building lot, in a highly and desirable location, near centre of town. Apply to C. E. STARR.

A lecture is to be given in the Baptist church, this town, next Wednesday evening by Rev. W. Y. Higgins, on "Life in India." The lecture will be illustrated by an exhibit of magic lantern views of India and will no doubt be most interesting. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Baptist Mission Band. A silver collection will be taken in aid of Foreign Mission work.

This California Fruit Cider is far superior to any other temperance drink ever offered for sale in the country. 5c. per glass at the Columbia Cafe.

Rev. D. O. Parker, while pursuing his investigation after Acadian relics at Grand Pre on Monday, succeeded in unearthing on the supposed site of the old blacksmith's forge, a silver French coin dated 1694. The inscription is in Latin and is remarkably legible. The coin, which was issued in the reign of Louis XIV, is much prized by the present owner. It is one of the best relics of the Acadians that has yet come to light.

Get our cash price on Flour before buying. Just landed one car No. 1 Oats. Will buy any quantity of old Rubber Boots and Shoes and Rubbers. In Trade, N. C. Cash. F. J. PORTER.

Local and Provincial.

A succession of refreshing showers yesterday cooled the air and effectually laid the dust for the time.

We would advise all those who wish to spend a pleasant day to take in the Foresters' excursion on Saturday.

A prominent educationist of our town is a recent convert to cycling. He sticks on pretty well for a beginner, too.

Third Quarterly Session of the Grand Division, S. of T., of Nova Scotia, will be held at Westport, Digby Co., Tuesday, Aug. 3rd.

Mr. C. L. Weeks, of Dartmouth, has leased the residence on Highland avenue lately vacated by Mrs. Cameron, and will in a short time move in.

Fine Pine Apples, 18c each at the Columbia Cafe.

Rev. Dr. Willets, president of King's College, Windsor, occupied the pulpit of St. John's church, of this town, last Sunday morning and evening, preaching two able sermons.

Private picnic parties have taken advantage of the fine weather of the past week or two, and a number of delightful excursions to various shady nooks herabouts are reported.

The service in St. Andrews (Presbyterian) church last Sunday morning was a children's service. The pastor gave a most appropriate address to the young people, and baptism was administered to ten infants.

FOR SALE.—A Ladies' "Lovell Diamond" Bicycle, new. Apply at the Central Telephone office.

The members of Wolfville Division have been invited by Capt. Lewis of the steamer Marins, now engaged in towing lighters for Mr. S. P. Benjamin, to take a sail on the basin this evening. The steamer will leave the wharf here about 6 o'clock.

The Kentville Driving Park, of which Mr. F. J. Porter, of this town, is the energetic Secretary, has hung out two purses to be competed for on Wednesday, August 11th. The programme is a 2.45 class, purse, $100, and 2.35 class, purse, $150.

Ashlawn Farm, Hantsport, this month sold a pair of nice black roan horses by the well known sire Rampart, to J. & W. Pitts, St. Johns, Newfoundland. We understand the price was close to $500. This was said by horsemen to be the best local bred pair of matched horses in N. S. Success attends.

FOR SALE.—A number of first-class household effects, in use during the last six months, practically as good as new, comprising bedroom suits, tables, chairs, carpets, rocking utensils, etc., which will be sold at reduced prices during the next week. These goods may be seen by calling at the American House.

E. E. FAVILLE.

The garden party held by the ladies of the Methodist church on the grounds of Mr. L. W. Sleep, last Friday evening, was quite largely attended. Chinese lanterns were hung about among the trees, and here and there the graceful folds of a Union Jack appeared through the foliage, giving to the scene a bright and novel aspect. All present seemed to enjoy themselves, and if they did not it was not the fault of the ladies in charge, who did all in their power to make the affair pleasant for all.

Teachers who would like, during the summer vacation, to extend their knowledge of Book-keeping, or learn Shorthand or Typewriting, or both, are hereby notified that we will, beginning July 5th, give a six weeks' course covering these branches. Write for particulars to E. E. WHISTON, Commercial College, 95 Barrington Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dr. E. P. Bowler, of this town, has entered his bay pacer "Elmore" in the 2.45 pace, which is one of the events to be held at the "Celt stakes meeting" at Halifax. "Ted" has been sending the big fellow along some fast quarters lately, and we shall be surprised if he does not win first money with him.

Professor Faville received this week from Capt. Newton, of the Halifax City, a box of New Zealand apples, which had been sixty days in cold storage. The fruit was in excellent condition, and of good flavor. This simply demonstrates the great utility of cold storage for fruit shipments, as the apples above referred to were of the early fall varieties.

FOR SALE.—A No 51 Walker Furnace, with 9 pipes and registers. Suitable for either hard or soft coal. Apply to L. W. SLEEP.
