The Ladies' Non-Talk Club gave a skating party to their gentlemen friends in Evangeline Rink Wednesday evening, Feb. 6th. Many thanks are due Mrs. Harris, for so pleasantly entertaining them.

Mr. J. Elliot Smith and family returned last week from Halifax, where they have been spending the winter. Their return was hurried on account of the threatened attack of Mrs. Smith with scarlet fever, which is quite prevalent in Halifax. Mrs. Smith remained in Halifax, and her many Wolfville friends will be glad to know that her condition is not at all serious.

The news was received by telegram this week of the death of Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, at Brooklyn, N.Y. Mrs. Cunningham was a former resident of this town, being a daughter of the late David Thomas. For some years after the death of her husband, who was employed in the Halifax post office, she resided in the house now occupied by Mrs. Gibbons, and had many friends here, who will learn with sorrow of her death. The remains, we understand, will be brought here for interment.

The Wolfville Fire Co. was called out twice this week, but fortunately in neither case was the fire a serious one. On Monday afternoon a slight blaze occurred at the Academy Home, which was extinguished with little damage. The fire caught in this case from the furnace. On Tuesday evening, at the height of the storm, an alarm was rung in consequence of a chimney on fire at E. J. Delaney's. The firemen responded promptly although at great disadvantage, but their services fortunately were not required.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church was very acceptably filled on Sunday last by Rev. Dr. Annand, missionary to the New Hebrides.

Dr. Annand is home on furlough, having spent thirty-four years in those far-distant islands of the sea. He and Mrs. Annand leave this week to return. The Dr.'s address on Sunday evening was a most interesting one, and gave a splendid idea of the life and condition of the people of the New Hebrides, as well as a good description of the work which is being done by the church there.

Stella-Chase Ainsworth.

Alumnae Hall was comfortably filled with a most attentive and appreciative audience on Friday evening, when Stella Chase Ainsworth, of New York, gave a most delightful recital. The program was a varied one, and in its performance the reader proved herself an elocutionist of unusual ability and training as well as a clever and versatile actress. In each of her selections her rare elocutionary power was displayed to splendid advantage. By request she substituted for one of the numbers of the program 'The Potion Scene' from Romeo and Juliet, in the rendition of which her marked ability to interpret Shakespeare was evident. Mrs. Ainsworth is no novice, having been a former member of Augustin Daly's Company, New York, and leading lady in other recognized theatrical companies. She recently returned from a tour of the world, having left Kingston, Jamaica, only a few days before the disaster. Although her father was a native of this county, this is Mrs. Ainsworth's first visit to Nova Scotia, her home being in California. She was much pleased with our Province, and will probably pay another visit in the summer, before leaving for England. She is accompanied by her friend and business woman, Mrs. Coates. To-night Mrs. Ainsworth reads at Kentville under the auspices of the Pastime Club.

The Grim Reaper.

The death of Mrs. Alice Chute, wife of the late David Chute, occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. G. Sutherland, Wolfville, Sunday evening, Jan. 20th, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Christian resignation and fortitude. Deceased was 78 years of age. She was deeply loved and revered by all who knew her, and in the circle where she was ever a fond and loving mother the loss is a great one and will be long and sorely felt. She leaves four sons, David, of Boston, Owen L., of New York, Joseph, of Seaton, Mississippi, and Edward at the old home, Canada Creek, and three daughters, Mrs. Smith, of Hartford, Vermont, Mrs. F. Edwards, of Stoughton, Mass., and Mrs. T. G. Sutherland, with whom she lived until her death. After the funeral, which took place Thursday morning at 8.30 o'clock, the remains were taken to Canada Creek and laid to rest beside her husband. The family have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland wish to thank their many friends and relatives who were so kind in helping them in their time of sorrow.

The death of Mrs. Melinda Pearson.

Besides her daughter Kate, the deceased leaves a husband and one son. -Hants Journal.

Good Game of Hockey.

Notwithstanding the many other attractions of last Friday evening there was a good attendance at Evangeline Rink to witness the return game between Lunenburg and Wolfville hockey teams. The management had an excellent sheet of ice and the fine program by the band added much to the pleasure of the occasion. The visiting team arrived on the express and were a sturdy and nice looking lot of young men. At eight o'clock, at the whistle of the referee, I. S. Boates, the teams lined up for action as follows:

Wolfville: Raife point, Lewis S. King centre, Faulkner H. Demore rover, Hughes A. King r. wing, McLeod L. Burns l. wing, Spicer Silver goal. W. C. Harris

No better hockey has ever been witnessed in Wolfville. The home team started in well and landed the puck, within two minutes, but the visitors soon rallied and played a faster game, keeping the Wolfville goal-keeper busy. Their combination work was most effective, and their staying powers gave them a decided advantage, and the powers of the referee were taxed to keep them within the rules.

The Wolfville players did excellent work and many very pretty individual plays were made. In the team work, however, they were not equal to their opponents, but with plenty of practice they would undoubtedly prove a very difficult team to down. The Western hockey league should be congratulated. When time was called the score stood 7-4 in favor of Lunenburg. W. King shot 3 goals; Burns, 1; F. King, 1; A. King, 1, and Demone 1. For the home team Spicer, Faulkner, McLeod and Hughes scored.

After the game the visitors were entertained with an oyster supper at Young's restaurant, when a very enjoyable time was had. On behalf of the Wolfville team Mr. W. T. Ford gave an appropriate address to the visitors.

The Emery-Hawley Recital.

The coming musical event - that of the Emery-Hawley recital, to be given on next Wednesday evening in College Hall - promises to be unique in several respects. All the compositions on the program are from Mr. Emery's pen. Some of them were brought out in England several years ago when he appeared at the university concerts in Cambridge. Others he played with success in Berlin and in the north of Germany. Several selected for next week's program were composed when Mr. Emery was only fifteen years of age. A few have been written since his arrival in Wolfville, notably the concert etude wh'ch he has entitled, 'Fog-life' - an extremely modern and characteristic number.

Mrs. Hawley has been chosen to sing the songs owing to her wonderful power of interpretation. Her voice is of unusual range and technical difficulties have no terrors for her. She has had success in various times. Last season she sang four times under Mollenhauer, in Boston as soloist in the 'Messiah,' at the Springfield Festival, etc., etc. Mrs. Hawley and Mr. Emery have been associated very frequently in concert work since the latter's final return from Europe in 1901; and twice before has Mrs. Hawley sung an entire program of Emery Songs. Mrs. Hawley is herself a composer of considerable ability. She has written two complete operas which have elicited great praise from Boston and New York critics. As a child she was a skillful player on the cello; from which it may be seen that she is a highly cultivated musician and an artist of high merit.

This will be Mr. Emery's only appearance in concert in Wolfville this season and already the sale of tickets shows that there is a wide-spread interest in Wolfville as well as in the surrounding towns. Tickets at 50c., 35c. and 25c. are for sale now at Rand's Drug Store.

The program included a well rendered chorus entitled 'Farewell to the Forest,' a violin selection by Mr. R. W. Ford and a reading by Mrs. Ford, all of which was greatly enjoyed. At the conclusion excellent refreshments were served and a half hour was most pleasantly spent in social intercourse.
