LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

D. W. Currier, who has efficiently managed the Centreville Hotel for the past six months, has been obliged to give up the task by the call of other work. The directors of the Centreville Hotel Company have been successful in leasing their property to George Burpen and James Crone who have already assumed control, and who will run it jointly as proprietors. The travelling public, as well as local transient trade, will be assured of a hearty welcome at a clean and well kept hotel where the entertainment and cuisine will leave nothing to be desired, and the company are congratulating themselves over securing such desirable proprietorship for their property.

B. O. Packard of Bridgewater was a caller in town on Sunday.

Emery Cliff of Mars Hill was in town on Thursday.

The many vacationists who spent their holidays with friends and relatives here have returned much refreshed to their various duties.

Harvey C. White of Woodstock, Ont., spent the week-end here with relatives.

Carl Foster of St. John was in town last week, removing his picture machine and piano from the Opera House. A movie house is to be opened here on the first of the ensuing month under the new management, so rumor has it.

Miss Marion White, professional nurse of Presque Isle, is in town on professional duties.

Mrs. Bessie Campbell is spending a few days in Presque Isle with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson and family are moving into the Vandine residence on Exchange street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. O'Hara and F. A.

Gibson will leave for Vancouver on Monday.

Miss Molly Gody spent the week-end with Lakeside friends.

Mrs. Williamson and children have returned from a visit with her parents at Norton.

Mrs. L. L. Clark was a recent visitor with her daughter, Miss Dorothy Clark, at Presque Isle.

E. L. West and Emerson Crouse have both been confined to their homes with illness, but are convalescing.

Mrs. Horace Estabrooks is visiting her son Joe in St. John.

The Barn Dance, an innovation of the Centreville orchestra, was fairly well attended last Tuesday evening despite the accompanying storm and the nearly impassable roads. All present had a good time.

By all present appearances the roads will be ready at a comparatively early date for auto traffic. Locally the roads are OK now and during the week Jitneys drove in from both Mars Hill and Bridgewater. The certainly a pleasant surprise early spring furnishes the motor devotee an opportunity for this rapid means of locomotion after the slow method of transit during the winter months. Most of the motor owners have their licenses all procured and are only waiting for Mr. Veniot to say the word "Go." It is to be hoped also that the agitation for this change in the rule of the road now being drafted may be given the support of the government. We need it most of all as our county lies throughout its length adjacent to U. S. territory and many mishaps would doubtless be avoided were the rule "Turn to the right" made universal.

D. F. Cliff of Mars Hill spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cliff.

The April meeting of the Women's Institute will be held in the Assembly Hall of the Florenceville school on Tuesday evening, April 12. This is gentlemen's night and every lady has the privilege of bringing one gentleman with her. A program of music and readings and singing will be given also a debate on "Resolved that Environment is stronger than Heredity." Every lady bringing a gentleman is requested to bring something in the way of refreshments, either cake or sandwiches, whether she is a member of the institute or not.

Polishing dogs seem to be the order of the day. "Bouncer" and "Mack" were the victims this time. It is a shame that harmless pets to whom the owners have become attached should be done away with through someone's carelessness or maliciousness.
