Emblem of Satisfaction

For the fourth consecutive year Buick has been awarded first choice of space at the National Automobile Shows. This honor is conferred each year by the automobile manufacturers who are members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, upon the member having done the greatest volume of business during the previous year.

The figures on which the 1922 award was made proved Buick to be the largest builder of six-cylinder cars in the world.

We invite you to ask for a catalog of the new BUICK models, including the wonderful FOUR Cylinder Buick.

Lord Halisbury's Will.

FAULTILY MADE ON HALF-SHEETS OF PAPER.

The Earl of Halsbury, of Ennismore-gardens, S.W., and of Pendruccombe, Cornwall, for 17 years Lord Chancellor of England, who died aged 98, left unsettled property of the gross value of £25,009 11s. 6d.

He left three wills, each made in his own hand on a sheet or half-sheet of notepaper. He directed that the Great Seals given to him by Queen Victoria and King Edward VII. and the Giffard Ring should devolve as heirlooms with the title, and he left all his other property to his wife, stating that the absence of reference to his children was no reflection upon them but because he had already made such provision for them during his illness as his means would permit. Like many other great lawyers, Lord Halsbury made his own will and did not do it satisfactorily. Affidavits from the witnesses were required before it could be admitted to probate. The list of eminent lawyers who made a muddle of drawing their own wills is a long one. Lord St. Helier, who, as Sir Francis Jeune, was for many years President of the Probate Division, left as a will a document which transgressed most of the rules and requirements for a valid will. Lord Grimthorpe left a series of testamentary documents which were the subject of litigation and whose intention it was impossible to ascertain, while two other great Chancellors, Lord Brougham and Lord Lyndhurst, left unsatisfactory wills. — English

Electrical Wizard's Rise.

Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz, so-called electrical wizard, who has succeeded in producing and controlling an indoor thunderstorm, is credited with knowing more about electrical power than any other person in the world. Thirty years ago he landed in New York, a penniless emigrant from Germany. He knew no one and lacked even a knowledge of the language. For days the poor hunchback emigrant walked the streets of New York, looking for a job. Finally he landed a place as a draughtsman that paid $12 a week. However, his rise was rapid. His wonderful genius forced recognition; within five years he had made a name for himself in the elec-
