Published by Authority.

His Excellency the Administrator has received a cablegram from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, intimating that His Majesty the King has expressed the wish that on Armistice Day, Nov. 11th, there shall be a complete suspension of all normal business throughout the British Empire during the two minutes silence, commencing at 11 a.m.

His Excellency and Ministers, feeling sure that the people of this ancient and loyal Colony desire to perpetuate the memory of our great deliverance and of those who laid down their lives to achieve it, direct that such observance shall take place throughout this Colony, and that at 11 a.m. on Saturday next, the 11th instant, all normal activities shall be suspended for the space of two minutes, during which time all thoughts will be concentrated in reverent remembrance of the Glorious Dead.

In St. John's the Gun at Cabot Tower will be fired at the hour above named.

For the two minutes as above trains will be stopped on the railways, traffic on the streets, ships at sea (as far as possible) and work suspended everywhere, in schools, shops, mines, factories, etc. During the two minutes there should be complete silence.

His Excellency the Administrator and Ministers believe that all will gladly interrupt their business and pleasure, whatever it may be, and unite in this simple service of silence and remembrance.

Deputy Colonial Secretary,
Department of the Colonial Secretary,
