Nearly the Wirs of A Robben.—A correspondent of the Georgetown (Kentucky) Times writes as follows: Last spring a young man by the name of Garner bought an interest in a sawmill at a little town a few miles from this place, and while engaged in the lumber business there he fell desperately in love with a young lady of high standing, whose name I omit, and was engaged to be married to her. He piocured a license, and made all necessary arrangements for the wedding, when he took a wild goose chase and left for parts unknown, and was never heard from until a few days ago, having turned up as one of the express robbers who was recently hung by a mob at New Albany, Ind. My informant, of this count y, was present at the hanging of the robbers (three in number). It is hoped that all fast men of our country may take warning from their fate, and not be led into temptation.

BRIGGS MODERN CURATIVE FOR CORNS, BUNIONS, INGROWING NAILS, TENDER FEET, &c.—It is the safest and most efficacious remedy ever discovered for the cure and prevention of ailments of the feet. It is not potash or acid, but a soothing, softening and healing ointment warranted not to injure the most delicate foot, but will soon effect a radical cure of these vexatious torments of the human family. There is no remedy equal to an operation by a skilful chiropodist. When this is not convenient, BRIGGS MCDERN CURATIVE comes as an angel of mercy. Sold by E. Harvey & Co., and druggists generally. C. H. Wright & Co., Hamilton, agents for British Possessions.

Great activity continues to be shown in the preparation for the Ecumenical Council. Citations have been issued for eight new Councillors—one being summoned from America, one from Spain, two from France, and four from Germany. An invitation was sent to the Rev. John Henry Newman, of England, but he has desired to be excused, on the ground of his age and bad health.

The uncertainty surrounding the fate

The uncertainty surrounding the fate of Mr. Lachlan Kennedy, brother of Mr. Angus Kennedy, of Galt, who sailed in the lost steamer Hibernia, has been cleared away. He was among the passengers saved by the ship Star of Hope.
