With Minister of Railways and General Manager of Intercolonial, Visits Halifax

Halifax, June 15.—Premier Borden, accompanied by Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, and F. D. Gutelius, general manager for the Intercolonial railway, arrived here Saturday night. Mayor Bligh, the members of the board of control, and representa-tives of the local Conservative organization, received the premier at the railway station.

The premier and his party were es corted in automobiles by two bands, several pieces of fire apparatus, and a dozen automobiles to the city hall, where a brief reception was held, followed by an address by the premier.

After assuring his hearers that without distinction of party he regarded himself as a representative of the whole people, the premier stated that he was very strongly impressed with the pro-posed terminals, which will be of sub-

Public Opening in Proper Form and Proved To Be a Great Success

Winnipeg, Man., June 15.—Promoted by the Million-for-Manitoba league, of which W. Sanford Exans is president, and formally opened by Sir Rodmond and formally opened by Sir Rodmond Roblin, Winnipeg's new public market proved a great success on its initial day yesterday, being heavily patronized by the public, who took advantage of low prices made possible by cutting out the middleman. The market is situated in the market building, and farmers delivered their garden truck at one end, while the ultimate consumer made hay with the low prices at the other, until long before evening the supply was exhausted. That it will materially cut down the cost of living is the confident hope of its promoters.
