Mr. and Mrs. John Wood and two sons, Murray and Harold, spent Sunday at Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Lindsay returned home last week, after spending several weeks with relatives and friends in the Canadian west.

The Dunwich school fair, which was to have been held at Wallace-town on Monday last, was postponed by order of the Dunwich board of health. The step was taken as a precaution against the spreading of infantile paralysis.

Mrs. R. J. Wright on Tuesday received a cablegram from her husband, Gunner Richard Wright, of the 63rd Battery, stating that his Battery had arrived safely in England.
This is good news as there have been several submarines around the American coast. With Gunner Wright are Gunnies Will Dunning, James Orton, Samson Elgie, Howard Brown, all of Aylmer, and Clifford Mossey, of Kingsmill.

Filby's.

Mrs. C. Dodds, Harvey street, returned home last week from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs.
Walter Winder, St. Thomas, and found her house had been entered during her absence, and a number of articles taken. During the summer months a number of Aylmer homes were robbed while the owners were away holidaying, but for several weeks no such robberies have been reported. It is expected that Mrs.
Dodds' house was entered about the same time as the rest. We understand that the thief left a souvenir of his visit, and no doubt the guilty party will now be discovered.

The British Red Cross is again appealing to the people of Ontario for funds to carry on the splendid work of caring for our sick and wounded dependents on every front. To-day, Thursday, October 19th, is the day proclaimed by His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, for the giving to this fund. The British Red Cross maintains hundreds of hospitals in Great Britain and on every battle-front. It provides and runs hundreds of motor ambulances, steamships, motor launches, rest stations and convalescent homes. Without the Red Cross work thousands of soldiers and sailors would die. You may not be able to fight, but you can heal with your gift. This is the Motherland's only direct appeal to we Canadians for assistance in this great mercy work. Ontario gave $1-24,000 last year, but the number of sick and wounded is constantly increasing, so let it be more this year.
Next Sunday afternoon, at 4:30 Lieut.-Col. Brown will address the citizens of Aylmer at a public meeting to be held in the town hall. Col.
Brown returned from the front a few months ago, and is in a position to know from first hand information the splendid work the Red Cross is doing on the firing line. Come out and hear his interesting talk. On Tuesday night a meeting will be held in the Council Chamber of the Town Hall to organize and arrange for committees to carry on the campaign along similar lines to that of last year. A canvass will be made in the near future.

Harold Jarvis, the Detroit tenor, who is so popular with audiences here, was married on Thursday afternoon. His bride is Marie Adelaide Judson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Bruce Judson, Hazelwood Ave., Detroit, and is a member of the First Presbyterian church, where Mr. Jarvis sings. Rev. Jos. A. Vance, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by the parents of the bride only. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis left on a trip through the west, and on their return will live in Mr. Jarvis' home, 39 Atkinson Ave.
Mr. Jarvis has been a widower for several years. His only child, a son, died a few years ago while studying in Holland.

Live Poultry Wanted—H. M. Ham-bidge Co.

On Sunday last Harvest Thankgiving services were held at St. Paul's church morning and evening. Rev. C.
F. Logan, of Leamington, preached two powerful sermons which were greatly enjoyed by the large congregations. Rev. Logan is a very fluent speaker and created a most favorable impression. At the morning service the choir rendered two anthems, entitled, "It is a Good Thing to Give Thanks," and "God's Bountiful Goodness." At the evening service a ladies choir of some twenty-five voices rendered the musical part of the service in a very pleasing manner. Two anthems were sung: "Peace, Perfect Peace" by Gounod, and "I Cannot Trace the Way," by Noyes. Mrs.
Rose, of St. Thomas, sang a solo in a splendid voice, and a duet by Mrs.
Turner and Miss Tufford, "Glory To Thee My God, This Night," was greatly appreciated. Mr. C. L. Parker, the talented young organist, played several difficult but exceptionally pretty selections on the organ, and maintained his reputation. The congregation was asked to contribute a thank-offering of $700, which was heartily responded to. Rev. A. E. M.
Thomson, the pastor, took Mr. Logan's work at Leamington, for the day.

Dr. J. D. Leeson returned home last week from Toronto, where he underwent an operation some three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crane returned to their home in New York Tuesday evening after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Farthings here.

Columbia Ignitor—Guaranteed to give the best satisfaction of any dry battery. For sale at the Aylmer Garage.

Mr. J. L. Whitlock, of Cleveland, O., who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. V. Mann, for the past week and a half, returned to his home on Monday.

In a recent letter received from A.
R. Christie, he states that he expects to go with the next draft to France.
He has been to visit some of Mrs.
Christie's relatives in England, and had a splendid time.

The Roller Rink opened on Wednesday night with the band in attendance. The rink will only be run for a couple of weeks, when it will be put in shape for the evangelistic meetings which are to commence on November 12th.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, of London, will address a public meeting of the citizens of Aylmer and surrounding district, in the interests of the British Red Cross Society, in the town hall, Aylmer, next Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

If you desire a handsome foliage plant, which may be seen at this office, put in your bid for it before Saturday night next. Whatever it brings goes to the Red Cross Fund. The plant is donated by Mrs. W. E. Lee-son.

On page 6 of this issue may be found the big display ad. of J. E.
Richards & Co., which no one can afford to overlook. The goods offered are all the famous Rexall brand, which have an enviable reputation everywhere, and the prices speak for themselves. It might be termed a "two-in-one" sale, as you get two of the articles for the price of one, plus one cent.
Our readers should particularly note the days of sale, as at no other time do the special prices apply. Richards & Co. are back of every purchase, and no firm is more reliable than they.

Do you appreciate good coffee? We have it. Gillett's.

We heartily congratulate our friends of the Aylmer Baptist church on the church having reached the ripe old age of 100 years. And better still it does not at all show its advanced years, but is hale, hearty, and stronger than ever. On Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, the pastor, officials, members and adherents, will duly celerate their Centenary, and on Sunday and Monday evening cordially invite everybody to rejoice with them.
Particulars of all services may be found in the church's regular space on page 1, column 1. Read them, and doubtless you will be attracted to one or all the services. Rev. Dr. Fikes, of Detroit, who has just turned down a call at a salary of $10,000 a year, is to be the preacher on Sunday. The church, like all others, has during its long existence, had its ups and downs but has bravely weathered all gales.
On page 3 of this issue may be found a most interesting history of the church, compiled and written for the Express by Deacon George Lemon, who, by the way, is personally responsible for his share of the present successful condition of the church.
You will find the article most interesting.
