Alfred Baker later owned and clear-ed the farm now owned by Wm. Gilpert, on the 7th concession of Yar-mouth, and afterwards cleared another farm on the 6th concession of armouth, near the place where he ied. It is only the older generation that will apreciate what is meant-at least how much is meant by the statement that Mr. Baker did the clearing on two large farms. De-ceased had been a resident of that district for many years, and is the last of the family. One grandson and three grandaughters survive. They are: Clarence Baker and Miss Grace Baker at home; Mrs. McKenzie, of Yarwouth, and Mrs. Frank Daven-port, of Aylmer. His wife formerly Miss Annie Minard, and his son, Ezra F. Baker, predeceased him. Mr. Baber was a staunch conservative in politics. In religion he was an Epis-copalian. The funeral was held on fuesday at 2.30 from his latae residence. Interment at Friends' ceme tery, Sparta.
