A. Smith & Co., cigar manufacturers of London, having purchased the plant and stock of the Globe Tobacco Works, intend to give their long experience in the tobacco business for the furtherance of their new undertaking. Owing to the fact that Mr. Smith will personally superintend the works, the public may rest assured that the goods placed upon the market will be of the finest quality only.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Street Commissioner Owen is laid up.

—J. Frith Jeffers, M.A., is confined to his home through illness.

—A typhoid fever case has been placed at the corner of Clarence and Horton streets.

—Conductor Wm. Leat, of the G. T. R., is lying very ill in this city of la grippe and heart troubles.

—Miss Maude Stephenson, city, is announced to take part in a St. Andrew's Church concert in Guelph to-morrow evening.

—Numbers of rigs are being driven around the city minus the statutory sleigh-bells, thus endangering pedestrians who are not on the alert.

—Remember the missionary song service, "Open Doors," at the Memorial Church school this evening. Bishop Baldwin will deliver an address.

—Miss Maggie Downie, of Seaforth, was in the city to-day for a short time on her way to London, where she intends entering a convent.

—Walt Whitman has had another slight attack of hiccoughing, and was greatly weakened by it. He was able to take but little nourishment, and lay in a stupor most of the day.

—B. Johnson, the contractor for the Victoria bridge, expects to commence the work on Monday. He furnished his securities and signed the contract this afternoon.

—Lena White, the young woman of doubtful character, who was given a week's remand by the police magistrate has been released. She left the city with her sister to try to reclaim her from her past ways.

—On Monday evening last about 35 children were given a sleigh ride around the city and then driven to the residence of Mr. Wm. Garlat, South London, where they amused themselves until the "wicked hours." In the morning they furnished their securities and signed the contract this afternoon.

—Mr. John W. Russell, a resident of the Grove, who has spent some time at the University is studying preparatory to entering the ministry, has left for the territory adjacent to North Bay, where he will do missionary work for a time. He is the first missionary ever sent into that district.

—Orders have been issued to American express agents in villages and small towns where deliveries are made, to deliver all packages immediately after their arrival. The custom of leaving express packages from late trains in the office overnight will thus be abolished. The change has been made on account of recent robberies in small offices.

—Two busses carrying the charming lady operators of the Bell Telephone Company and their male escorts to Niagara and back last night. They were entertained near that village at a friend's residence and had a capital time, returning about 5 o'clock this morning. The merry "hallos" that rang out on the moonlit air told of happy hours and good fun.

—The crowd at the Queen's avenue rink last night was the largest this winter. The ice was good and happy youth and beauty enjoyed the pleasurable exercise which skating affords. The preponderance of the fair sex was very noticeable and it seemed a pity to see so many racy-checked girls skating together because male partners were scarce.

—The semi-annual meeting of the Talbot Street Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. was held last night. When reports of committees were received, Rev. J. P. S. C. E. Hick (acc.); F. S. Alex. Aikman (acc.); Treas., Alf Smallman (acc.); Chap., Alf Padfield; S. W. A. Evans (acc.); J. W. N. Peterson (acc.); S. B. E. North; J. R. A. Scott; the secretary read the report of the finance committee, James A. Morrison, Alf Padfield. The officers were installed by J. F. Hicks, P. D. H. C. R., assisted by James Lucas and A. Smallman.

—The London Medical Association held its regular monthly meeting in the Medical College on Monday evening, Jan. 11. A large number of the medical men of the city were present, also a few outsiders. The president, Dr. MacArthur, occupied the chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. Several matters were discussed and disposed of. One new member was elected and two others proposed for the next meeting. Dr. Meek read a very interesting paper on "Lacerations of the Cervix," which was well discussed by Dr. Graham, Wilson, Arnold, Jones and Wishart. Dr. Wishart gave a discourse on the subject of "Headaches due to eye-strain," which was well shown forth by diagrams and blackboard illustrations. Dr. Butler ably discussed the subject. Dr. Arnold and Wishart also taking part.

Osgoode Hall Rulings.
Healy vs. Fitzsimons.—C. J. Holman, for the defendants, moved for an order for recovery for costs on the ground that the action brought for the benefit of the Ontario Investment Association and to other grounds. Reserved.

No Evidence Dismissed.
Yesterday's Hamilton Herald says: "When the case of obtaining $200 by false pretences from Mrs. Emma Jacques was leveled at Joseph E. O'Rourke, of London, Crown Attorney Cregar rose and said: 'There never was a case of false pretence in this affair at all. It is merely a false contract by O'Rourke. I have no evidence to put in support of the charge.' The judge wrote to the effect: 'No evidence.' No evidence was dismissed." And that ended the affair.

Killed in Texas.
The Order of Railway Conductors in St. Thomas, having received word that William Shand, conductor on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway was killed at Denison, Texas, on Monday night. Mr. Shand was for six or seven years a conductor on the M. C. R. He left St. Thomas about three years ago. His bereaved wife, of St. Thomas, and a sister of Messrs. George and William and Miss Annie Metcalfe. He leaves a family of five or six. A brother of the deceased is an employee of the M. C. R. in this city.

Got a Joke on Himself.
The popular pastor of the Melrose Methodist Church sends the following publication in the ADVERTISER: "The covenant service will (D.V.) be conducted in the Melrose Methodist Church next Sabbath morning and a sermon will be delivered in the evening on the evils of intemperance by the pastor."

W. T. T.
Seventy-three members were present at the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon, and seven new members were received. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Sage, in which the members heartily joined, thanking God for the many mercies of the past year, and with him as their captain they feel strong to begin the work of 1892. After the usual business routine a recitation was nicely given by one of the little girls of the industrial school, followed by a most instructive paper on scientific temperance by Miss Coyne. A most suitable and well-rendered solo was given by Mrs. R. Kilgour, and the meeting was dismissed.

They Got Off.
The police magistrate this morning gave judgment on two liquor cases in favor of the defendants. James W. Martin, late of the Martin House, was charged with having a light burning in his bar-room after 12 o'clock, and P. C. Weir and Alton previously gave evidence to that effect. Mr. Martin and John R. Smyth testified to the contrary. Thomas S. Hodgins was charged with selling liquor during prohibited hours. He proved that the persons to whom he sold it were guests of the house, and the magistrate decided that a hotel-keeper was not amenable for supplying his guests with liquor. It was a pretty close call, he said, for Hodgins, but he would give him the benefit of the doubt.

Anniversary at the Grove.
The neat little church of the Methodists at the Grove was crowded three times on Sunday in celebration of the anniversary. The pulpit was occupied morning and evening by Rev. J. P. Rice, who preached very able and interesting sermons. Rev. A. C. Courville was the preacher in the afternoon, and from the text, I Corinthians, xv, 13-14, he gave one of the best sermons ever heard in that district. The musical part of the services was a special feature, the choir from Zion and Siloam joining with the singers of the Grove, and the combined voices rendered the hymns in a manner seldom known outside the larger city churches. Rev. W. Cregar is pastor at the Grove, and his ministrations are greatly appreciated by his congregation.

Congregationalists Enjoy Themselves.
The Sunday school anniversary entertainment of the First Congregational Church held last night was a very happy affair. The church was crowded, speakers and others scarcely having room to stand on the platform, while many in the audience had to sit on the floor. The program was well rendered, including: Trio, Messrs. Brock, Anderson and Greenway; duet, Messrs. Anderson and Fleming; trio, duet, Messrs. Brock and Johnston; chorus, infant class solo. Fred C. Chapman, chairman of the choir, gave a fine rendering of selections, Messrs. Greenway and Dixon recitation, Hattie Moule. The attendance was large.

A Good Time in London West.
The anniversary tea meeting of the Kensington Methodist Church was held Monday night. The church was crowded, speakers and others scarcely having room to stand on the platform, while many in the audience had to sit on the floor. The program was well rendered, including: Trio, Messrs. Brock, Anderson and Greenway; duet, Messrs. Anderson and Fleming; trio, duet, Messrs. Brock and Johnston; chorus, infant class solo. Fred C. Chapman, chairman of the choir, gave a fine rendering of selections, Messrs. Greenway and Dixon recitation, Hattie Moule. The attendance was large.

Police or Porter—Who is Right?
Some members of the "My Colleen" Theatrical Company got into trouble at the Grigg House on the night of Jan. 5, and caused the proprietor, Mr. Ed. Horsman, to appear in the Police Court this morning. Mr. Horsman granted them the use of a room near the bar after the show. They told him they wanted it about half an hour in order to discuss business matters quietly, but it was between 1 and 2 a.m. when they emerged, to wind up with a fight in the hall. P. C. Campbell was near by, and said he was told by George Elm, the night porter, that the men had been drinking in the bar after midnight. Elm, however, denied this in the witness box this morning. The bartender, Thomas Horsman, swore that the bar was closed sharply at 12 o'clock, and that the showmen got no liquor after that hour. Mr. Horsman, the proprietor, said he had given strict instructions that the law must be respected. He was in bed at the time. The magistrate accordingly dismissed the case. The police said that Elm came to the station next day, and asked if they were going to prosecute Mr. Horsman, and peculiarly enough Elm denied the whole thing.

Dr. Ryckman Raises a Brozo.
An Ottawa dispatch (Associated Press) says: "On taking from the Dominion Church programme of the week of prayer, the back leader, advertising Mrs. Ryckman, developed an interesting paper. Rev. Dr. Ryckman, of the Dominion Church, being asked by a committee of investigation if he had any idea who had torn the advertisement off, promptly admitted he did. Asked his reason for so doing, he replied that the backs in question principally verified Mrs. J. K. Barney's addresses before the W. C. T. U. afternoon meetings, and as he did not know who Mrs. Barney was, he did not wish her advertised before the congregation. The friends of the W. C. T. U. feel pretty sore over the matter, and say that if Dr. Ryckman did not know who Mrs. Barney was he did not know the W. C. T. U. and might have trusted to their good judgment. Rev. Dr. Ryckman being seen again, said he did not know who Mrs. Barney was and knew nothing of her character or the doctrine she might teach, and, therefore, did not wish to take the responsibility of recommending her to his congregation. It might be urged that the fact that the Gospel Mission Union had brought her here would be sufficient proof of the character and doctrine. But in reply to that he would say that the Gospel Union brought Mrs. Barney here, and Mrs. Barney, in his opinion, besides preaching a great deal that was nonsense, held doctrines regarding the Lord's second coming and the judgment which he could not at all indorse. It was suggested that the net was that of one who objected to

Got a Joke on Himself.
The popular pastor of the Melrose Methodist Church sends the following publication in the ADVERTISER: "The covenant service will (D.V.) be conducted in the Melrose Methodist Church next Sabbath morning and a sermon will be delivered in the evening on the evils of intemperance by the pastor."

W. T. T.
Seventy-three members were present at the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon, and seven new members were received. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Sage, in which the members heartily joined, thanking God for the many mercies of the past year, and with him as their captain they feel strong to begin the work of 1892. After the usual business routine a recitation was nicely given by one of the little girls of the industrial school, followed by a most instructive paper on scientific temperance by Miss Coyne. A most suitable and well-rendered solo was given by Mrs. R. Kilgour
