Hon. Wilfrid Laurier took the proper stand in regard to Hon. David Mills' timely motion in favor of Canada making her own commercial treaties. Canada, as Mr. Mills affirmed, should be able to make the best possible arrangement with other nations, having in view the interests of the Canadian taxpayers above all other things. Canadians should be self-respecting; they have to be self-supporting. Why should they be tied up with red tape for all time to come?

Says the Dundas Banner: "One of the charges against Judge Elliot in the petition to Parliament for his impeachment is that he wrote editorial articles and anonymous etters to the London Free Press discussing as a politician phases of the election cas which were to come before him as a judge for decision. The solemn stillness which has since pervaded the columns of the Free Press in regard to this charge is one of the most touching things in connection with

The other day the London Free Press mplained because there were too many references to the London election steal in the ADVERTISER. Now it berates this journal because there is a temporary lull in the discussion of the rascality. Our contemporary should not take on so; its querimoniousness but betrays it. Why not eave these side issues alone, and give its readers some information on the subject by publishing the indictment against its editorial contributor which, so far, it has suppressed?

The London Free Press is, without doubt, the most mendacious newspaper in Canada without any exception. Even the Toronto Empire gives indications occasionally that it has a political conscience, but the Free Press, when its party is concerned, never. We venture to say that when discussing political affairs it is the most uncrupulous sheet printed in the English language. No steal was too large and no immorality too shocking to meet its disapproval when committed by members of its own party. The Empire gave a half-shamed indorsation to Judge Elliot's voters' list frauds, but every other paper in Canada, Conservative, Liberal and Inde in Canada, Conservative, Horse, condemned his act. The Free Press, however, howled out its delight at what its moral organization regarded as a smart trick. The Grits were dished, and that is the sum of its political morality.—[Windsor Record.
