His work will be the organization and conduc tion of 25 Christian unions in the various colleges and universities of Australia. New Zealand and Tasmania.

Yale Weekly of May 27 contains a handsome cut of Mr. Sallmon, accompanied by a eulogistic sketch of himself and his work. Following is an "Here at Yale he has a host of friends who cannot speak too highly of his efforts for the Christian life of this university, and he goes to his new and larger field of usefulness accompanied by the best wishes of many men who have found him a true and faithful adviser, and with the heartiest gratitude from the Vale Association, which he has lead to so many successes." He was tendered a farewell recention ast night at Association Hall by about 40 of his friends. Secretary Sayer oc cupied the chair, and farewell addresses were made by W. F. Findlater, T. B. An Unknown Man Turned Out

A sensation was caused at the Duke of York Hotel, Dundas street, about noon today when it became known that an unknown individual had been found in room 9, unconscious in his bed, and the gas turned on full. Whether it was the man's intention

The man in question went to the hotel last night in company with a man named Taylor, who paid his expenses, saw him to the room and put him to bed. When Taylor went down as he did not want to get up. At 10:30 The porter crawled in through the citate the man proved futile, and doctors were telephoned for. His clothng was searched, but nothing in them revealed his name. Under his pillow was found an old purse containing ed, and worked with the man for about an hour and a half, when he opened his eyes, but was unable to move or speak. At 1 o'clock he was removed to the hospital in the ambu-lance. The man is about 5 feet 16 inches, of heavy build, and a massive head with prominent features, light hair and mustache. He is a stranger
