CHOIR OF CENTENNIAL PREPARES PROGRAM

Will Provide Special Easter Music For Services Tomorrow

The choir of the Centennial Methodist Church, under the leadership of Theodore Gray, has prepared a very fine musical program for the Easter services Sunday. There will be special services in the morning and evening, as well as at the Sunday school session.

A few weeks ago the church had the misfortune of having its heating plant go out of commission, with the result that it was necessary to withdraw all services, but now this difficulty has been overcome, new boilers having been installed, and everything is in readiness for the reopening Sunday with this specially prepared Easter offering.

A Dilemma.
Twixt Grace and Sue I wavered long,
But now I know
That on sweet Sue my choice is fixed—
'Tis truly so!

Such Is Freedom.
"For a man who is paying somebody a hundred dollars a week all winter, you seem mighty cheerful."
"Naturally," she used to cost me over twice that much when she was my wife."
—Edmund J. Kiefer.

He Was Stone Broke.
"I'm building," the pensive maiden sighed,
"A castle in the air."
"And what is the corner-stone?" he cried.
She answered, "A solitaire."

Fablegrams.
'Tis said that a woman is afraid of a mouse, a mouse is afraid of a man, and a man is afraid of a woman.
Moral: There is a crowd.

By Their Fruits.
Family trees are funny; time was when they were tended and pruned, all dead timber being carefully cut out, but now bare limbs are a common sight on even some of our oldest and best family trees.

Some of them produce a lot of peaches and the same branch may also bear nuts. Many blossoms are found nesting in the leafy branches and perchance a few withered wall-flowers are found tucked away in sundry nooks.

Lemons are common on some of the trees; prunes and quinces also abound. Some of this fruit is easy picking and some of it has to be pretty well shaken before it will fall. You will find many little love nests tucked away in the branches of the old family tree and also some pretty queer birds.

But everything considered, the family tree is a pretty good tree, and it is quite a calamity to fall out of it.

THE THING THAT COUNTS MOST
By Bert Allen Taylor
There are values in life that are splendid and high.
There are treasures we have, that no money could buy.
There are things that we cherish, and hold above all.
Though their value in silver or gold may be small;
But of all the wonderful things I have seen,
The thing that counts most is the adding machine.

The pleasantest way to kiss a girl is without her consent, but with her approval.

Readers are requested to contribute. All humor: Epigrams (or humorous mottoes), jokes, anecdotes, poetry, burlesques, satires, and bright sayings of children, must be original and unpublished.
