CANADIAN ARRESTED IN U.S. AS CZAR OF RUM RUNNERS

"Bill" Dyer, Montreal Sportsman, Held as Prize Spoil of Gigantic New York Raid—Eighteen Ocean-Going Vessels Involved—Dry Workers Think Rum Row Broken.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Dec. 3.—Half a hundred prohibition agents, deputy United States marshals and special patrolmen swooped down today on the offices of a rum ring, which, prohibition agents said, was the largest in the history of prohibition, and was "the backbone of rum row."

A syndicate which controlled 18 ocean steamers in the rum trade, bribed coastguard officers by the wholesale, and maintained a secret service of its own for watching the movements of federal officers, was said to have been broken up by the raiders, whose first round-up of the day netted 20 men, and whose principal captive was "Bill" Dyer, alleged head of the syndicate. The ring's activities were said to be responsible for the bringing in of millions of dollars' worth of liquor into this country annually. Dyer, arraigned before Judge Goddard on a specific charge of conspiracy last July to bring 4,038 cases of liquor into the country hidden in the bunkers of the S.S. Augusta, was held in $40,000 bail, although Assistant United States Attorney Stichman asked it be set at $75,000. United States Attorney Buckner said he had been informed that Dyer was part owner of the Mount Royal race track in Montreal and the Coney Island race track at Cincinnati.

Immediately after the raid, Major Walton A. Green, chief assistant of General Lincoln C. Andrews, despatched the following message to his chief: "Beg to report capture of Dyer and his principal assistants. Forty-one warrants out, and biggest round-up in history of prohibition enforcement still in progress. Splendid help by Foster."

Foster is in charge of the local enforcement officers. Indicating Dyer, Mr. Stichman said, "This man is the leading figure against which the energies of the prohibition department in this case have been directed. By him various coastguard officials have been bribed. In the Augusta case his agents did the bribing, and the vessel was allowed to proceed up the river to Yonkers. For more than two years coast-guard boats have been in the pay of this defendant."

Is Legally Dead Prospector Back

Locked in Wilds of Alaska, Man Was Declared Dead by Courts.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 3.—Unheard of for many years and legally declared dead, Richard Inkster, alive and well, returned to Winnipeg today and reported that he had been locked up in the icy wilds of Northern Alaska.

Mr. Justice Curran on May 7 declared Inkster legally dead when affidavits were presented showing the missing man had not been heard of for years. All agreed that he was dead. When he made the order, however, the judge expressed some misgivings. "The Inksters are a hardy breed," he said, "I know them all and they don't die easily. I won't be surprised if he shows up later."

KILLS SELF IN GRIEF.
Riga, Latvia, Dec. 3.—Christie Mett, widow of the Latvian foreign minister, who was recently killed in an automobile accident, was found dead this morning. She is believed to have taken her own life.
