

Suffered 20 Years "Fruit-a-lives" Cured in 2 Months

St. Raphaela, O.P.T.
For over twenty years I suffered from Chronic Constipation of the bowels, and I could get no medicine to cure me. I tried doctors and every known purgative, or laxative, medicine known but I was no better. Sometimes, if I did not take medicine, I would go four or five days, without any action of the bowels. During all this time I was weak and suffered from indigestion constantly.

About a year ago a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives" as they had helped her. I began taking "Fruit-a-lives" and from the outset I began to feel better, and inside of a month the pains were almost gone and the Constipation relieved. In two months I was perfectly well again, no pains, no constipation, and my complexion had lost all that sallow appearance.

An Expansive Management.
The gist of Mr. Armstrong's attack has appeared already. In brief, it was that the management expenses are unduly high in comparison with the sums which actually go into the Indians' pockets; that wide and singular variations occur between the cost of administering the department in the several provinces; that the Indians' lands are alienated in a wasteful and improvident manner. Rather incautiously, from a debating point of view, he suggested that the department take a leaf out of the American book in the matter of establishing larger schools which will "make citizens" of the Indians. Also, he expressed a desire to see supplies bought more rigorously by tender.

RECALLS OLD MYSTERY

Late A. E. Lewis, of Vancouver, Was Central Figure of a Montreal Drama Several Years Ago

Montreal, June 30.—News of the death of Albert Edward Lewis, of Vancouver, called from Paris, recalls a nine days wonder of a decade ago. Mr. Lewis was then a resident of Montreal, and was supposed to be wealthy, as he had married the daughter of Stanley Bagg, who owned a large and valuable property, mostly residential. Lewis was a real agent, and was trying to put through a deal in the suburb of Mile End, now Ville St. Louis, to which there was violent opposition. One night he left home to keep an appointment in connection with the matter. He has not been seen since. The last seen of him was at the appointed place, a case corner of the "attracting quibbles," which did not have so good a reputation then as now. There were signs of a terrific struggle. One of Mr. Lewis' gloves and his key were found near the scene. The letters were found in his house, and the police went to work on the folk play theory. But before long they began to look farther afield, and soon had no doubt that Lewis was alive, and well.

Months after this it was discovered that Lewis was in Vancouver. He remained there for a year or two, afterwards returning to Winnipeg and taking up his residence in Vancouver, his ally. He is said to have owned a good deal of property in Vancouver.

REBUKE FOR SHAH

British Foreign Office Refuses Request for Delivery of Refugees and Protest Against Posting of Troops

London, June 30.—The foreign office has refused the request of the Persian government that the British legation in Teheran be handed over to the local authorities, and with warrant against the action of the Shah in posting troops in the neighborhood of the legation. Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, said the refugees would not be given up without definite and reliable guarantees of their proper treatment.

On Lord Robert's Col.

Toronto, June 30.—Lt. Col. Dehison has been appointed to Lord Robert's staff on the occasion of the Field Marshal's visit to the Quebec territorial celebration.

Drowned at Owen Sound.

Owen Sound, Ont., June 30.—Scott Morrison, a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, fell off the dock at midnight and was drowned. His body was recovered this morning. He had been to Niagara camp, and received his pay yesterday, and was somewhat intoxicated when the accident happened.

SHIPMASTER SPRANG OVERBOARD TO RESCUE

After Collision Roumanian Captain Jumped into Sea to Save Greek Master.

News of the plucky act of a European shipmaster to save a fellow mariner after collision is reported from Lisbon, where the Roumanian steamer Constanta, loaded with coal, and bound from Cardiff for Genoa, arrived in a sinking condition, with 25 of the crew of the Greek steamer Mikael.

While in midocean the Mikael ran into the Constanta, and tore a great hole in her bows. As she was the smaller vessel, however, she suffered most, and sank almost immediately. The captain of the Constanta, after heroic efforts, saved all the crew of the Mikael, but the captain refused to be taken off.

As the vessel went down the captain of the Constanta gallantly plunged into the sea, and after some struggles succeeded in getting his brother skipper aboard the Constanta, amid the cheers of both crews.

Quebec, June 30.—The steamer Amethyst, inward bound, is ashore at Mooren Island, near the Saguenay river. She has a cargo of railway ties for this city.

TAKES GLANCE AT INDIAN DEPARTMENT

Costs Two Dollars to Put One Dollar in a Red Man's Pocket

Ottawa, June 22.—As a rule, our management of Indian affairs is mentioned only with pride, and is left unchallenged as to the details of administration. It is a quiet corner of our public business, managed by an unostentatious department, which is left very much to itself; nominally, the busy minister of the interior is responsible for it, but in practice it may be doubted whether he spends much time over it, and it goes its own way in peace and quiet. Its traditions undeniably are admirable; it is not the British treatment of the Indian model among the handling of indigenous races the world over? But Mr. Armstrong, of East Lambton, has had his eye upon this quiet, unobtrusive million and a half department; he has been marking its methods, observing its ways, and getting onto its curves for the past two years. As a result, he doesn't think much of the department's way of doing business; he thinks that too much money goes to the officials and too little to the Indians as they are property-owners, and that the primary business of the department is to administer that property for their benefit. And today, on the government moving into supply, Mr. Armstrong mentioned a few of the things he had noticed. He also mentioned several gallons of statistics, and after Mr. Oliver had replied and some further discussion had taken place, it was 5 o'clock. Then the House got into supply.

London, June 30.—An oratorical joust between Lord Curzon and Viscount Morley of Blackburn, secretary of state for India, occurred in the House of Lords tonight on the subject of the recent unrest in India. The being Viscount Morley's maiden speech in that house.

JAPANESE AND SCHOOLS

Those Living in Seattle Will Have Educational Institutions of Their Own

Seattle, July 1.—Seattle Japanese have decided to withdraw their children from the public schools, because, as they alleged at a meeting of the Japanese association of the state of Washington, held last night, the education given is not satisfactory to them. Japanese schools and Japanese instructors will be substituted for American schools and American instructors, and the Japanese interested say diplomatically that all is due to a desire to avoid a possible repetition of the San Francisco trouble. This action was taken, it is said, at the suggestion of Japanese Consul Tanaka.

MONEY IS PLENTIFUL BUT MARKET DULL

Present Inactivity of Stocks—Not Equalled Since Days of 1900

New York, July 1.—The fiscal year opened in the financial world with a condition of profound apathy so far as it is reflected in the securities market. Bankers had some difficulty in the paying of interest on bonds, and there were other money obligations to be met, including the payment of a $11,825,000 installment of subscriptions for the new Northern Pacific stock.

DEMOCRATIC SLATE

Lincoln, Neb., July 1.—That the Nebraska delegation of 16 is for a New York man for vice-president if the factions from that state can get together and falling that, for Judge Gray, of Delaware, was asserted today by a Democrat high in the councils of his party in Nebraska. This announcement is regarded here as almost equivalent to an expression from W. J. Bryan himself.

Ontario Bank Suit

Toronto, June 30.—The master in chambers has granted an order to the old directors of the Ontario Bank calling upon the liquidators to furnish particulars in the action for $2,000,000 damages. The master finds the defendants entitled to further details to enable them to prepare their defence on an intelligent examination.

Killed Toronto Man.

New York, June 30.—Joseph Liffie, aged 21, was arraigned before Coroner Doley yesterday charged with killing Albert C. Nowell, of Toronto, Ontario, with a black-jack, on June 21. He was committed to the Tombs without bail. Jule Jones, a colored lad, who claims to have seen Liffie strike the blow, is being held as a witness.
