

UPPER GRANVILLE.

Miss Brenda A. Troop, having spent several weeks in ...

Our very efficient teacher, Miss Neily, has again resumed her duties, having just returned from a very pleasant trip to Boston.

Teachers, Misses Charlotte Walker, Sarah Chesley and Hattie Clark have left again to take charge of their different schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howe Austin, of Dartmouth, and Mrs. (Capt.) S. M. de Granville, have been recent guests at Ingle's Assin's.

Mrs. F. E. Miller has lately returned from a six weeks' visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart in Parrisboro.

Mrs. Beale, of Bear River and Mr. David Graves, of Boston, who came to attend the funeral of the latter's mother, leave to-day (Wednesday) for their respective homes.

Mrs. Calvin Corbett, of Centerville, Mr. Albert Roland, of Montserrat, and Mr. J. C. Cropp, of Digby, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Chesley.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. D. B. Pinner, who, with Mrs. Pinner, left here in September to enjoy the winter in California, is lying seriously ill at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Arnold Goodwin, in Los Angeles.

The death occurred here on Thursday of Mrs. Graves, widow of the late Robert Graves, at the age of 79 years. Mrs. Graves had been in poor health for a long time, but her sufferings were always bravely borne with great cheerfulness.

Mrs. Geo. Caspell, of Hampton, and three sons, Joseph H. and David, of Boston, and Minard, of Centerville, at whose home she spent her last days. The interment took place in the Chesley burial ground, Rev. E. P. Daley officiating.

Service on Sunday, Jan 11th, will be at 3 p. m. Don't forget the social in the church on Tuesday evening, 13th inst. Miss Myrtle Starratt has returned to her school at Montserrat.

Miss Susie Leonard has returned to Falmouth. Messrs. R. S. and C. F. Boehner, of Pictou Academy, have been spending a few days at home.

Miss Mary Hainey has returned to her school at Port George. Mr. I. C. Morse has resumed his studies at the Harvard Medical School.

Mrs. Homer Pearson has been visiting at Round Hill. The donations for Pastor Locke amounted to about $65.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fritz and children, of Boston, are spending the winter with Mrs. Fritz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hicks, of Bridgetown, and Dr. Young, of Charenton, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Young last week.

Mrs. Percy Bennett, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ritson Marshall. Miss Cameron, of Bridgetown, was a guest of Mrs. D. C. Freeman last week.

Percy Elliott, B. A., is teaching in Middleton. Services Sunday, January 11, Baptist, 11 a. m., Rev. Archibald Fitzgibbon, 11 a. m., Rev. Amor; Methodist, 11 a. m., Rev. Gaetz.

P. G. Stevens, of Victoria, B. C., spent the last week here visiting friends of his boyhood days. The week of prayer is being held here this week, union meetings of the two churches.

Rev. Beatty, the evangelist, will preach in the Methodist church this (Wednesday) evening. Our school teachers and students have returned to their respective schools and colleges.

PORT LORNE.

Services for Sunday, January 11—Baptist, 10:30 a. m., Arrington, 2:30 p. m., Havelock, 7 p. m.

Mr. Israel Hall, who moved here a year ago, having improved his premises very much by paint and otherwise, has sold to Mr. Howard Neaves, who has been at sea for nine years, spending only twenty four hours out of that time at home.

North Division is progressing. Seven candidates were nominated during the quarter. The following officers are elected for next quarter, Elmer Hamilton, W. P. Carr, W. A. McLellan, Bardsley, R. S., Eunice Anderson, A. R. S., Lizzie Clark, Chap. A. Con, Georgia Hall, F. S., Young Anthony, Treas., Ralph Neaves, I. S., Elias Salomon, S. Alfred Charlton, P. W. P.

The next great exploit of the C. P. R. is to be an irrigating canal west of Medicine Hat by means of which some 3,000,000 acres of arid land are to become valuable for farming purposes. The canal is to run from Calgary to Medicine Hat and will borrow water from the Bow River.

An operation unique in the history of Nova Scotia mining is planned by the Oshiver McDonald, who has bonded coal areas near Port Morien, according to a dispatch from Glace Bay. The area which he controls are wholly submarine, and he is planning to sink a shaft to a rock which is known as Flint Rock, mining his coal from under the ocean bed.

There are some 3,000,000 acres of arid land in the West which are to become valuable for farming purposes. The canal is to run from Calgary to Medicine Hat and will borrow water from the Bow River.

Over eleven thousand square miles of one of the most valuable timber areas in Newfoundland at a purchase price of a quarter of a million dollars has passed into the hands of a Boston firm. The property of the Exploits Lumber Co., has been sold to Barker Wood & Co., who are to develop it by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

CANADIAN NEWS.

The All-Canadian foot-ball team, which is playing a series of games in Scotland, won a victory by a score of 8 to 3 over a champion team at Edinburgh on January 1st.

Rev. J. R. K. Sellar, a young Methodist minister, formerly of Gaysboro, was hospitalized last week in New York. His remains were brought to Gaysboro for interment.

The revenue for the year ending December 31, as the largest on record, it reached a total of $1,200,000, being $20,000 in excess of receipts for the corresponding period of 1901.

New York and Chicago capitalists are to spend $1,500,000 in erecting a 280 room hotel on the west side of Victoria Square in Montreal. The new hotel is to stand on a lot 350 by 200 feet, to be known as the Grand Central and is to be ready for business before 1904.

The next great exploit of the C. P. R. is to be an irrigating canal west of Medicine Hat by means of which some 3,000,000 acres of arid land are to become valuable for farming purposes. The canal is to run from Calgary to Medicine Hat and will borrow water from the Bow River.

An operation unique in the history of Nova Scotia mining is planned by the Oshiver McDonald, who has bonded coal areas near Port Morien, according to a dispatch from Glace Bay. The area which he controls are wholly submarine, and he is planning to sink a shaft to a rock which is known as Flint Rock, mining his coal from under the ocean bed.

There are some 3,000,000 acres of arid land in the West which are to become valuable for farming purposes. The canal is to run from Calgary to Medicine Hat and will borrow water from the Bow River.

Over eleven thousand square miles of one of the most valuable timber areas in Newfoundland at a purchase price of a quarter of a million dollars has passed into the hands of a Boston firm. The property of the Exploits Lumber Co., has been sold to Barker Wood & Co., who are to develop it by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

B. UNTY ON BEARS. To the Editor of the Monitor: As the Municipal Council will meet in the course of a few days it will not be amiss to call the attention of the Warden and Councilors to the fact that they have seen it to remove the small bounty on bears, thereby doing a great deal of injury to sheep owners over a large portion of the county.

In Dalhousie and Perote settlements the season, and some loss of sheep on account of the ravages of bears and other wild animals—bears being by far the most destructive. In these sections, but for this drawback, a profitable business could be done in sheep raising. From Saw Mill Creek to Upperville, bears were very annoying to farmers in the early part of the season, and some loss of sheep on account of the ravages of bears and other wild animals—bears being by far the most destructive. In these sections, but for this drawback, a profitable business could be done in sheep raising.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

The settling was gradual and the people in the affected territory escaped without being immediately endangered. A gang of men and boys who were at work in the mine beyond the fall encountered a flooded "dip" or depression in a vein in making their way by a circuitous route, and had to swim from one rise to the other, however, sustained any injury.

Abandoned workings of the Eddy Creek colliery of the Beland & Hudson Company beneath the very heart of the town of Oliphant, Pa., caved in Friday afternoon and engulfed four frame buildings containing an aggregate ground space of 6,000 square feet.

Grand January Clearance Sale! Commencing the 7th and lasting to end of month only. If you miss this great opportunity you will be the loser.

Lot 1. Ladies' Paris Silk Waists, all Shades and Black. Lot 2. French Flannel Waists. Lot 3. Ladies Paris Pattern Hats. Lot 4. Ladies Fine French Kid Gloves. Lot 5. Ladies' Cloth Suits. Lot 6. Ladies' Rainy-day Skirts. Lot 7. Eiderdown for Ladies' Dressing Jackets and Children's Coats, extra heavy, nice range of patterns.

30 p. e. off Furs, Winter Gloves, Under-vests, Heavy Hose, Serges, Fancy Black Dress Goods, Tweed Effects, etc. Also 30 per cent. off on the following lines: Men's, Youths' and Children's Suits, Youths' and Children's Overcoats, Ulsters and Reefers, Men's Top Shirts, Gloves of all kinds, Neckties, Bows, Collars, etc.

STRONG & WHITMAN, Ruggles Block, Bridgetown. Phone 32.

WE take this opportunity of wishing our Customers "A Happy & Prosperous New Year." J. H. HICKS & SONS.

BRIDGETOWN BOOT & SHOE STORE. A FULL LINE OF Bedroom Slipper Soles. Sizes from Infants' No. 2 to Women's No. 7. All sizes in stock.

FOR SALE Hardware Business. With a full line of PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, GLASS, BRUSHES, BLACKSMITHS' SUPPLIES. Apply to B. HAVEY, BRIDGETOWN.

SORRY Very Sorry. WE are really very sorry to disappoint so many people, but if we were producing five times our present output of PORT HOOD COAL. THE PORT HOOD COAL CO., Limited, Halifax and Port Hood. SCHOOL SUPPLIES ALL KINDS Central Book Store B. J. ELDERKIN.

A few of the patented features that have made BISSELL'S "Cyclo" Bearing SWEEPERS Famous throughout the World.

Reversible Bail Spring prevents the sweeper from tipping when it is drawn quickly over the carpet. Dust Proof Axle Tubes prevent all hairs, threads or ravelings from winding about the axle rods, as well as all dust from escaping through the ends of the case. Anti-Raveler prevents all dirt, hair or threads from getting into the holes in the ends of the brush and destroying its free action.

Our Elderweiss Cream is the finest preparation known for chapped hands, rough skin, smarting from shaving, chafing from saw-edge collars, and other skin ailments. It is not sticky, nor does it clog the pores of the skin. It is delightfully soothing, clearing, softening and healing, and is just the toilet cream for fall and winter. You cannot help liking it.

Price, 25 cents S. N. WEARE Medical Hall, Bridgetown. GRAND CLEARANCE SALE!

I beg to announce that before occupying my new premises in the Prigmore building I have decided to mark all my Leather Goods AT COST.

Broad Cove, Port Hood and Acadia Coal in hand. W. A. KINNEY FOR SALE or TO LET!

A Large and Commodious Dwelling with Restaurant and Bakery. On account of poor health Mrs. Kendall has decided that we must make a change in our business. Accordingly we wish to either sell or let, on easy terms. This is a good opening for the right party.

We still keep a nice stock of Home-made Bread and Pastry and are prepared to feed all comers at Kendall's Restaurant and Bakery. Prince Edward Island Railway. TENDER FOR WHARF AT MURRAY RIVER, P. E. I.

Having made large purchases in wholesale quantities of household and up-to-date house furnishings, we have a large assortment of handsome and up-to-date house furnishings, which will be a pleasure to show the ladies at Bridgetown. ANNIE CHUTE. Bridgetown, Oct. 28th, 1902.