

endeared himself to the nation by many disinterested services, discharging the duties of Chairman of the London School Board and Vice-President of the Church Missionary Society, and other positions, with the same energy and steadfast adherence to right and duty that he had shown all through his life. The narrative is most interesting, and many incidents in Lord Lawrence's career, and not a few important opinions held by him in regard to Indian affairs are here presented (e.g., that missionaries have done more to benefit India than all other philanthropic agencies combined).

PUBLISHER'S DEPARTMENT.

THE BEST EDUCATIONAL JOURNAL IS THE TEACHER'S BEST FRIEND.

Renew your subscription. Subscribers in arrears are respectfully requested to remit the amount at once.

Notify us at once of any change of address, giving the old address as well as the new.

Accounts will be rendered from time to time, and prompt payment of the same will be expected. Specimen copies sent free from this office to any address.

Our readers will observe that special attention is given to examination papers in this Magazine; in many cases hints and solutions are added. We hope subscribers and others will show in a practical way their appreciation of the valuable work done by the editors of the different departments of THE MONTHLY.

We are grateful to the friends of THE MONTHLY who have, from many different places, sent us letters of approval and encouragement, and request their kind assistance in getting new subscribers for 1888.

The Editor will always be glad to receive original contributions, especially from those engaged in the work of teaching.

Bound copies of this Magazine in cloth may be had from Williamson & Co., or from James Bain & Son, King Street, Toronto, for $1.00 per copy.
