| FACTORIES AND BUILDINGS. | | PAC | GE |
|--|--|---|--|
| Life of Congrete Characters (a) | AGE | | 495 |
| Life of Concrete Structures (2) Great Dominion Telescope (2) | 51 | Drydock for Vancouver (¼) | 509 |
| Great Dominion Telescope (5) | 74 | Hand and Machine Placed Mortars (81/4) 5 | |
| Concrete Construction for Rural Communities (1/2) | 77 | | |
| Apparatus for Determining Soil Pressures (6) New Steel Piling (½) | 91 | | |
| Relation Between Engineers and Contractors (4) | 95 | | |
| Forms for Concrete Work (73%) | 126 | | |
| Interesting Tests at the New Simpson Building, Tor- | | HYDRAULIC WORKS AND WATER POWER. | |
| onto (1/4) | 160 | HIBRAULIC WORKS AND WAILK TOWER. | |
| reflectly and Practice of Modern Framed Structures (13%) | 177 | Lake of the Woods Lavels and Overflow (xx) | 1 |
| Graphical Analysis of Continuous Beams by the Use of | | Crowth of "The Hydro" (1) | 19 |
| the Principle of Continuity (7½) Toronto's Mechanical Filtration Plant (15) | 195 | Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) | 19 |
| Time Tests of Concrete (8½) | 203 | Montreal Aqueduct Report (1/4) | 19 |
| Time Tests of Concrete (8) | 231 | Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) | 24 |
| Design of Steel Stacks (8½) Steam Power (½) | 252 | Pumping Machinery—Test Duty vs. Operating Re- | |
| Gas, Oil and Petrol Engines (3%) | 259 255 | sults (5) | 31 |
| Power Transmission by Leather Belting (1/4) | 259 | Difficulties in Designing and Operating Medium Sized Waterworks Plants (4) | 36 |
| Vibrations in Steam Turbines (2) | 269 | Montreal Controllers Refuse to Permit Aqueduct In- | 30 |
| Fainting (1½) | 279 | vestigation (34) | 39 |
| Standardization and its Assistance to the Engineering | -/9 | Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) | 53 |
| industries (3½) | 293 | Exportation of Electricity (5) | 65 |
| Roentgen Rays (1/6) Unit Costs in Building Construction (11/2) Things We do not Verental and Construction (11/2) | 352 | Application of Newton's Second Law of Motion to | |
| The work of the territory of the contract of t | 332 | Certain Hydraulic Problems (6) | 68 |
| 8 (1) | 366 | Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) | 73 76 |
| Bars (4½) | 272 | Irrigation Structures (1) | 78 |
| - Coren of Office Discks (51%) | 373 395 | Niagara Export Power Situation (234) | 80 |
| The state of the s | 487 | Power Development in Saskatchewan (4) | 87 |
| Design of Steel Stacks (1) Timber Decay and its Growing Importance (3¾) | 495 | Rosewater Hydraulic Table (1¼) | 90 |
| and Machine Placed Mortage (QII) | 521 | New Steel Piling (½) | 95 |
| Artistic Effect in Engineering (1) | 537 | Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) | 96 |
| | | Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and | 90 |
| The production of the state of | | Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) | 115 |
| | | | 139 |
| | | | |
| HADDONG | | Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (34) | 140 |
| HARBORS AND WATERWAYS. | | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) | 140 |
| | | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (1/4) | 140- 151 159 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) | I of | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) | 140 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) | 7 8 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (34) Use of Precipitation Data (24) | 7 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 215 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) | 7 8 11 15 | Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Pain | 7 8 11 15 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (34) Use of Precipitation Data (34) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Street | 7 8 11 15 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (34) Use of Precipitation Data (34) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (44) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) | 140- 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (34) Use of Precipitation Data (34) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (444) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 259 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 259 263 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 259 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4¼) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¾). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) | 140 151 159 160 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¾) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¾) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (0) | 140 151 159 160 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Papids (1½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) | 140 151 159 160 176 178 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¾) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¾) | 140 151 159 160 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¾) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) | 140-151 159 1600 176 178 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 327 327 327 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11) Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Ex- | 140- 151 159 1600 176 178 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 324 325 327 342 343 365 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2). International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) | 140 151 159 160 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (42) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 140 159 235 258 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼) Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- | 140- 151 159 1600 176 178 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (1) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½). Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (134) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¾) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¾) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾). Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water-shed (3½) | 140 151 159 160 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11) Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½). Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St Mayurice Piper (¾) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). | 140-151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 397 411 424A |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drydock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2¼) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 388 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). 4 High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3¼) | 140-151 159 1600 176 215 235 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drvdock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾). Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). 4 High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3¼) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) | 140- 151 159 1600 176 178 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 397 411 424A 429 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Life of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drydock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- shed (3¼) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 383 393 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¾) Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¾) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8) High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3¼) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers | 140 151 159 160 176 215 2258 258 259 263 271 297 324 325 327 343 365 367 382 397 411 424A 429 439 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2). International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾). Life of Concrete Structures (2). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1). Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼). Georgian Bay Canal Report (1). Lake of the Woods Levels (4½). Behind the German Trenches (1). Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼). Irrigation Structures (1). Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Niagara Power in United States (1). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾). Pollution of Boundary Waters (½). Surges in an Open Canal (6½). Control of Water (¾). Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½). Canadian Terminal Harbors in Salt Water (5¾). Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾). Seattle Drydock Largest in World (¼). Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½). Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½). St. Lawrence River Improvements (3%). | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 140 1235 258 271 288 347 382 388 393 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼) Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8) High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3¼) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) | 140- 151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 439 445 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drvdock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- shed (3½) Vancouver Harbor and its Improvements (3¼) St. Lawrence River Improvements (¾) Centrifugal Pumps and Suction Dredges (2) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 388 393 397 398 436 449 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾). Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Water Replacing Steam Power (½)Nov. 30 298 Water Hammer Problems Solved by the Use of Align- | 140- 151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 439 445 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1). Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼). Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drydock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- shed (3½) Vancouver Harbor and its Improvements (3¼) St. Lawrence River Improvements (3½) Concrete Construction in Winter (2½) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 388 393 397 398 436 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½) Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½). Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¼). Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8) 4 High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Water Replacing Steam Power (½) Nov. 30 208 Water Hammer Problems Solved by the Use of Alignment Charts (12) | 140- 151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 439 445 |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2). Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (4¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (4½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½) Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (½) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Canadian Terminal Harbors on the Great Lakes (12½) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drvdock Largest in World (¼) Quebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- shed (3½) Vancouver Harbor and its Improvements (3¼) St. Lawrence River Improvements (¾) Centrifugal Pumps and Suction Dredges (2) | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 388 393 397 398 436 449 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¾) Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Water Hammer Problems Solved by the Use of Alignment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) | 140- 151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 441 424A 429 439 445 8 CN |
| Lake of the Woods Levels and Overflow (11). Pollution of Canadian Streams (2) International Joint Commission (¾) Use of Precipitation Data (¾) Life of Concrete Structures (2) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (1) Two Methods of Regulating Rainy Lake (11). Determination of Maximum Stream Flow (¼¼) Georgian Bay Canal Report (1) Lake of the Woods Levels (¼½) Behind the German Trenches (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Falls (1¼) Irrigation Structures (1) Niagara Export Power Situation (2¾) Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Desirability and Practicability of Regulating Levels and Outflow of Lake of the Woods (4½). Niagara Power in United States (1) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Proposal to Dam Niagara Rapids (¾) Pollution of Boundary Waters (½) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12) Concrete Wharf Supports in Salt Water (5¾) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Seattle Drydock Largest in World (¼) Ouebec Harbor Improvements (2½) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Water- shed (3½) Vancouver Harbor and its Improvements (3¼) St. Lawrence River Improvements (¾) Centrifugal Pumps and Suction Dredges (3) Concrete Construction in Winter (3½) Laying Concrete in Freezing Weather: Troy Lock and | 7 8 11 15 19 24 29 39 53 56 73 78 80 96 115 139 140 140 159 235 258 271 288 347 382 388 393 397 398 436 449 487 | Water Power Possibilities of Nova Scotia (5) Rosewater's Hydraulic Table (½) Experiments on the Plastic Elongation of Wire (1½). Oldest Water Mill (1) Hydraulic Tables (¾) Losses in Cables at High Frequencies (¾) Surges in an Open Canal (6½) Control of Water (¾) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Engineering Applications of Higher Mathematics (½) Water Powers of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island (6½) Designing Earth Dam Having a Gravel Foundation, with the Results Obtained in Tests on a Model (12). Use of Steel Conductors for Transmission Lines (2¾) Hydro-Electric Radial Railways for Niagara Peninsula (¾) Electric Power Transmission Economics (6) Montreal Aqueduct Power House (½) International Joint Commission (1¼) Manitoba Hydrometric Survey (9) Examples in Alternating Current (½) Principles of Electrical Engineering and Their Application (¼) Waters and Water-Powers (3) Manufacture of Nitrates and its Relation to the Exportation of Electricity (1) Falls and Rapids on St. Maurice River (¾) Photogrammetry for Taking Topography of Watershed (3½) Control of Norman Dam (2) Engineers Condemn Montreal Aqueduct Scheme (8). High Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Toronto Power Co.'s Transmission Line Tower Foundations (3) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers (3½) Water Hammer Problems Solved by the Use of Alignment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) High-Tension Transmission Lines and Steel Towers ment Charts (12) | 140-151 159 1600 176 215 258 258 259 263 271 297 298 320 324 325 327 342 343 365 367 382 445 8 CN 455 |