

HENRY TOMLINSON'S BUFF

COCHINS have been awarded prizes amounting to over £300, and numerous valuable Silver Cups, at most of the principal shows in England. H. T. is now prepared to export a few trios of very high class Buff Cochins, very large, undeniably in color, in well matched trios fit for high-class competition, at ten pounds per trio. Young birds of this year, bred from H. T.'s best prize stock, are now fully matured, very large indeed, perfect in color and quality. Some grand birds can be sent out perfectly matched, fit for any exhibition, at eight pounds per trio. Partridge and White Cochins of unusual quality at same prices as Buffs—both young and old birds.

Above prices include coops and carriage paid to Liverpool.

The Hawthorns, Gravelly Hill, Birmingham, England—late Moseley.
