

REV. FATHER HEND.

Preached to the Members of the Catholic Order of Foresters.

On Sunday evening Oct. 25th, the members of the Catholic Order of Foresters of Toronto attended Musical Vespers in St. Paul's church Power St. Where the Rev. Father Hend of St. Joseph Court addressed them. Special music was rendered by the choir arranged as follows:

Ela Meter, Rossini, Stabat Mater, choir; G. Rossini, Vespers, choir; Laudate Pueri, Zingarelli, Miss Carrol and Mr. Deenan. J. J. Deenan, J. J. Lambie, Zephoniah and Oliverio Bissonecchi, Avo Verma, Millard, Mr. M. Derhan, J. O. Salutaris, Verdi, Miss Annie O'Connor; Tantum Ergo, Millard, Mr. Derhan and choir.

The Reverend Father Hend in his sermon paid a high tribute to the Catholic Order of Foresters and to the officers of same for the manner in which the society was conducted, and spoke of the advantages of being a member of this noble organization which he termed as the friend of the widow and orphan and had the approbation of the highest ecclesiastical authorities (His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto being their chaplain). If a member of this society is ill and unable to work, said the Rev. Father, the O. O. F. takes him by the hand, picks him up and pays him during his illness the sum of $6.00 per week. If death should remove a member, the society pays to his widow and children $1000, or $2000 or $3000 according to the amount of the policy carried by the deceased member. This organization he said had already paid to the widows of deceased members $2,000,000. In addition to this the funeral expenses of deceased members are paid by the Foresters out of a fund provided for that purpose. The society he said numbers 10,000 members in Ontario and Quebec, every one of whom is a good practical Catholic.

In closing Father Hend recommended every young man to become a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters, which as he had said had the approbation of the highest authorities of the church and is first, last and always, Catholic and which he said was justly entitled to the title of "protector and friend of the widow and the fatherless."

Cornwall's New Hospital.

CORNWALL, Oct. 29.—Cornwall is to have a Roman Catholic Hospital. On Monday last, the large brick dwelling and grounds, formerly the residence of the Hon. John Sandfield Macdonald, were purchased for the Episcopal Corporation of the Diocese of Alexandria for this purpose. The building is a commodious one pleasantly situated on Water street, which runs along the canal bank, and has large spacious grounds attached. The main building is 52 x 82 feet, two storeys high, the storerooms being 18 and 16 feet high respectively. There is also a large two storey wing 42 x 80 feet and a kitchen 10 x 24. The rooms are large and well ventilated, and the building is well suited for the purpose for which it was purchased. At the request of His Lordship, Bishop McDonell, Archbishop of Kingston has agreed to supply a staff of Hospital nuns from the Hotel Dieu, Kingston. The building will be overhauled and properly fitted up for the reception of patients.

Sad Death of Mr. C. Flanagan.

The sad news was cable from England last week that Mr. Cornelius Flanagan, Separate School trustee for St. George's ward, had died in Liverpool. Mr. Flanagan was an extensive cattle chopper and was vice-president of the cattlemen's association. His business took him to England five months ago. Few particulars have been learned concerning his death beyond the fact that the fatal seizure took him very suddenly. He was a most respected man and one of the prominent Catholics of Toronto.
