GENTLEMEN.—The prospect of taking an active part in the management of the Municipal affairs of the City is to me the reverse of agreeable, but believing that it is the duty of every citizen to sacrifice his private interests or personal inclinations when called upon to assist in the public service, I cannot refuse compliance with your requisition.

I should consider your selection of some more competent and more willing candidate as an act of great kindness to myself, but if it is your opinion that I should promote the interests of the City, and of the St. Antoine Ward, better than any one else who is available for the position, I can only place my services at your disposal.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant, W. F. KAY.

THE GAZETTE Prospectus for 1869.

It is now about 18 months since The Gazette has been published in its present form—in other words, upon the principle of combining economy of space with giving, at the same time, a large amount of reading matter, so as to enable the publishers to sell a moderate sized and closely filled sheet, with profit, for ONE PENNY.

This system is that which is adopted by the most successful papers in the world—in Great Britain, the United States, the Australian Colonies and South Africa.

It necessarily excludes the village system of hand-bill or placard advertising, and insists upon uniformity, as well in the interest of the advertiser as the publisher, on the ground that uniform and classified advertisements are easily found and seen at a glance, while, on the other hand, where a large collection of hand-bills is grouped together, a maze of confusion is created, and no single advertisement can be readily found, except indeed there may be a particular kind put in an accustomed place, say at the top of a column, at the expense of others.

One column of advertisements set in the present style of The Gazette would fill upwards of FOUR of the old blanket-sized sheet we formerly published, so that when we have now 12 or 13 columns in our present uniform style, they are equivalent to 48 or 50 of the village or hand-bill style,—which would make a perfect wilderness of confusion of job-type, in which the search for any particular advertisement (except in the circumstances mentioned) would be almost as hopeless as for a needle in a haystack. Advertisers craving for larger letters, bigger cuts, and blacker type, to make an impression in the confusion, only add to it instead of overcoming it.

The essential principle is that, while one gold dollar is quite as valuable as one hundred red copper cents, it is a great deal more convenient to carry, and so a given and say small space in one column, among 12 columns, where all is compact and uniform, is much more valuable than four times that space in a great mass of confusion among 48 columns.

There is this important fact in addition,—the uniform, well-filled sheet commands a much larger circulation, which, taking into account at the same time the quality of the circulation, is the test of the value of all advertising.

And it is here we claim particular and unrivalled advantages for The Gazette. None of the morning journals in the Province begin to approach it in extent of circulation. Besides its very large circulation in this city, it is sold every day in every town and village of importance within a radius of 200 miles of Montreal; and some time ago we addressed a circular to the different news-vendors within that radius, asking for a comparative return of the numbers of all newspapers sold, and the result showed an average of between twelve and twenty Gazettes to one of any other newspaper in the Dominion. We will furnish the proof of this to any one who desires to see it.

Advertisers will please note that the majority of these readers out of Montreal obtain a great part of their supplies from the Commercial Metropolis.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

We shall make special rates with advertisers by the month or year for squares.

It is a golden rule for business men who have goods to sell to advertise liberally. The most successful business men have done it, and the shrewd and keen business men among the Americans much more than our own people.

Even if advertising were to cost a considerable per centage on the sales, it would be much better than keeping goods on the shelf.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

We offer inducements of liberal discount to subscribers to PAY IN ADVANCE, with a view to make the system uniform and general.

We deliver the Daily by carriers in the city for $6 a year, in advance, and send it by mail for $5. But in all cases when not in advance, the price is $8 a year.

Tri-Weekly, in advance, by mail, $3 a year. Weekly, $1 a year. Parties may subscribe to the Daily edition either by the month or the week.

In the future we shall not relax, but rather increase, our exertions to make The Gazette so useful and attractive as to be almost a necessity in counting houses, places of business, and the homes of the people. All important news, of all public events transpiring in any part of the world, and of all sides of all political parties, will find an immediate place in its columns, in such way that its readers will be kept au courant of every fact and event that it is important to know.
