STUDIES IN CHRISTIAN BIOGRAPHY.

St. Chrysostom and St. Augustin, 158 pages, 12mo. Neatly bound in heavy paper covers. Price, 25c. Thomas Whittaker, Publisher, 2 and 3 Bible House, New York.

The author's exhaustive studies, in preparation of his Church History put him in closest affiliation and sympathy with the heroes whose life-story he has told so lovingly. It is this magic power of the historic imagination which causes these men to emerge from the silence and darkness of the dead past, and enact their wonderful experiences before our very eyes. So Dr. Schaff seems almost like Luther's friends, jotting down the "Table Talk," or a Boswell eagerly catching the words that fall from the lips of Johnson. He thinks their thoughts, he writes under their agonies, he shares their triumphs, he goes with Chrysostom into his lonely banishment, he rejoices in the victories of the Bishop of Hippo. Thus are these studies more charming than the best told romance, while they bear to old and young, to the scholar and to the lay reader as well, lessons of untold value. Nor does his admiration for these great men blind the author to their failings in character and theology, but, like a loving and faithful friend, he clearly reveals these to the reader, thus recognizing but one perfect life, Jesus of Nazareth.

The publisher of this most excellent book is proving the possibility of creating a large sale for the higher class of literature by offering such works, printed and bound with faultless care, at the price of cheap novels. May he be amply rewarded.

"You should feed them, sir," said a shepherd when his pastor, watching him herd his sheep, had remarked that he wished his sheep would follow him as he saw the shepherd's flock doing. The answer is a very telling one, and applicable to many others besides the 'evangelical' parson mentioned in this case.

BURMAN'S PARISH INDEX.

THE INTERESTS OF THE CHURCH would be greatly advanced if her clergy would adopt a simple system of inter-parochial notification when adherents remove from one parish to another, and would also compile a Record of his parish for the use of a future incumbent.

Clergymen and others engaged in pastoral work and visitation are familiar with the need of some practical method of recording, in convenient and permanent form, the names of their parishioners, so as to have instant access to details, both as to unmarried persons and families, with particulars as to each member of every household.

The Index above named, prepared by the Rev. W. A. Burman, of Whitby, admirably supplies these wants. It is for use at the Rectory, and consists of sheets, perforated and arranged in a Shannon Index filing case, and printed to facilitate the tabulation of all necessary information regarding the members of each family (a sheet for a family); spaces being assigned on the sheets for recording pastoral visits and facts regarding Access, Baptisms, Confirmations, Communion, etc., and other memoranda as may be desirable to note for future use.

A Cipher Code accompanies every Index for the purpose of facilitating the noting of memoranda which would otherwise be too lengthy for entry.

When a family removes to another parish, the respective sheet may be taken off (a duplicate made) and forwarded to the clergyman of the parish to which the family goes. The sheets, therefore, answer admirably as letters of communication, and convey all necessary information regarding this family to the incumbent, who will be greatly assisted, while at the same time the Church is safe-guarded against loss of members.

When an incumbent removes from the parish, the Index should be left for the use of the new incumbent.

Being on a file of this modern new sheets may be inserted at any time in their proper places, alphabetically, or sheets removed when necessary.

It is also made in pocket form as described below.

BURMAN'S PARISH POCKET INDEX.

This is a book of convenient carrying size having its leaves ruled and printed the same as the Parish Index before described, (for both families and unmarried persons) and having the cipher indexes and pages, &c. are left at the end of the book for the entry of special parish events and also for recording Sermons, Addresses, etc.
