That brow bear the death-seared hue Of the leaves autumn prunes from the tree. But, oh! on that brow was a saint-like calm, Though then but a senseless clod, Though the soul of the soul it hath shrined—

Its bed was the bosom of God, And still o'er that heart stood the chalice of Christ, For a lamb of His fold was he; And I though, oh! I thought on the last, last time I had knelt, sorrow-bowed, at his knee.

Ab, God of our Faith, then I inwardly cried, Our lives were but valueless boons Had we not as guides through their labyrinths dark Our dear beloved soggarth aroons. Oh, where in the hour of Thy sin-aroused wrath.

All trembling in fear would we flee,
To regain back Thy grace, Thy friendship, Thy love If not to our confessor's knee?

Sad the people prayed while the white-robed priests The caoine of our Church low sung,
And their souls to each sound gave an answering peal

And their souls to each noting gave at answer
As the dirge for the dead, slow sung.
Then slowly, O slowly, the Mass complete,
The song and the ritual o'er,
The lights made dark, a brotherly band
The dead to its bier they bore.

Then easily on through the winding streets Watched I the sad cortege pass; Noting the gloom of the sorrowing crowd—

The grief of the mourning mass.
Low they laid him down to his long, long sleep, And the clay on the coffin's lid Was piled and piled, till all darkly deep

Neath the bosom of earth twas hid. One parting prayer for the earth-riven soul Surged up through the closets to God, And the vain-checked tears from each struggling eye Sank down th ough the churchyard sod, Ab, sweet is death in this land where Faith Like the star o'er Bethlehem shine, And hearts with hearts for the glory of God Like the leaves of her emblem twine. [Dublin Irishman.

"A DROP OF JOY IN EVERY WORD." FLEMINGTON, Hunterdon Co. N.J., June 26, 1874.
Da. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N.Y.: Dear Sir—It is

with a happy heart that I pen these lines to acknowledge that you and your Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets are blessings to the praised, for they have almost brought me out of the grave. Three months ago I was broken out with large ulcers and sores on my body, limbs and face. I procured your Golden Medical Discovery and Purgative Pellets, and have taken six bettles and the solution of the leading proprietary and patent medicines in stock. A large assortment of Hair, Tooth, Nail and Shaving Brushes. A quantity of French and English Perfumery and toilet requisites for sale cheap at gative Pellets, and have taken six bottles, and to-day I am in good health, all those ugly ulcers havday I am in good health, all those ugly ulcers having healed and left my skin in a naturally, healthly condition. I though at one time I could not be cured. Although I can but poorly express my gratitude to you, yet there is a drop of joy in every word I write. God's blessing rest on you and your wonderful medicines is the humble prayer of Yours truly, JAMES O. BELLIS.

When a medicine will promptly cure such terrible cating ulcers and free the blood of the virulent poison causing them, who can longer doubt its won-derful virtues? Dr. Pierce, however, does not wish to place his Golden Medical Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nostrums by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it: but what he does claim is this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer. He does not recommend his Discovery for that disease, yet he knows it to be the most searching blood cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other known blood poisons, be they animal, vegetable or mineral. The Golden Discovery is warranted by him to cure the worst forms of Skin Diseases, as all forms of Blotches, Pimples and Eruptions, also all Glandular Swellings, and the worst form of Scrofulous and Ulcerated Sores of Neck, Legs or other rts, and all Scrofulous Diseases of White Swellings, Fever Sores, Hip Joint and Spinal Diseases, all of which belong to Scrofulous diseases.

A Nutriment is latent force, and as the accumulation of force is dependent upon the activity of that part which absorbs nutriment, it follows that any process or means which provides for the assimilation of food, must augment the energy of the great nervous centres. Hypophosphites contains the principles which acting upon the stomach and lacteals, cause the due and perfect assimilation of food, and thus restors that energy which makes a STRONG AND VIGOROUS MANHOOD.

GET THE GENUINE ARTICLE .- The great popularity of "Wilbor's Compound of Cod Liver Oil and Lime," has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt to palm off a simple article of their own manufacture; but any person who is suffering from Coughs, Colds or Consumption should be careful where they purchase this article. It requires no puffing; the result following its use are its best recommendations, and the proprietor has ample evidence on file of its extraordinary success in pulmonary complaints. The phosphate of lime possesses a most marvelous healing power, as combined with the pure Cod Liver Oil by Dr. Wilbor. This medicine is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty. For sale by A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Boston.
