Mercantile Summary.

MR. G. L. SMELLIE, late manager of the Binecarth Farm, has been appointed inspector for Manitoba of the Canada Permanent Loan &amp; Savings Company.

THE wholesale dry goods and fancy goods stock of Messrs. Ross, Foster &amp; Co., Montreal, valued at $22,000, was sold at auction last week and realized 45 cents on the dollar.

THE first shipment of this season's salmon pack was made by the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company from one of its canneries on the Skeena River, and consisted of four hundred cases.

A MEETING of the creditors of Adam Allison, the missing banker and grain buyer of Belmont, was held in St. Thomas on the 24th. The claims filed amount to about $18,000, and the assets nominally to $7,000. It was decided to dispose of the estate as quickly as possible.

It is learned by the Sackville, N.B., Post that a valuable discovery of coal has been made on an area owned by R. G. Leckie. The seam is nine feet thick, of excellent quality, and is supposed to be a continuation of what is known as the Aberdeen seam. The mineral wealth of Springhill is surely increasing, and it is likely to become a great mining centre at no distant day.

CREIGHTON, FRASER &amp; Co., ship chandlers, Vancouver, have dissolved partnership. Mr. W. D. Creighton retires and G. A. Fraser and A. McKennell will continue under the style of G. A. Fraser &amp; Co.

THE early-closing movement is about given up already. Most of the merchants make a pretence at closing, but the key is often left in the door, and the proprietor may be seen standing a few feet away, enjoying the pleasure of an evening's outing.—Aylmer Express.

A SHIP captain, after loading deals for Mr. Snowball, says the Chatham, N.B., World, refused to sign a bill of lading unless the deckload were stated to be at shipper's risk. He finally signed under protest, and brought suit in England for damages for the delay. The suit has just been decided in Mr. Snowball's favor, with costs against the plaintiff of about $5,000.

THE Niagara Falls Board of Trade will petition the Michigan Central Railroad authorities to change the name of Niagara Falls Station to Niagara Falls Centre, and do away with the name Clifton altogether. Much confusion, it is said, arises from the present names. Falls View is above the Falls, Niagara Falls nearly opposite the Cataract, while the station in the lower part of the town of Niagara is called Clifton, the old name of the town.
