MISCELLANEOUS.

It is now some time since talk first began of "temperance public-houses," and the Bishop of Durham is of opinion that the subject should not be allowed to drop. That ecclesiastical dignitary's idea is to have a public-house where men can be supplied with good beer and non-intoxicants.

"My Optician," of 159 Yonge St., is an old established firm in Toronto, having made optics a speciality examines eyes correctly, charging only for spectacles.

There are 20,000 miners and other workmen reported to be out of employment and in great distress in the Gogebic iron mining district in northern Wisconsin. They received good wages but it was a "boom" time in the newly-developed region, and they spent all that was earned in the general spirit of extravagance which prevailed.

A HIGH VALUATION.

"If there was only one bottle of Hagar's Yellow Oil in Manitoba I would give one hundred dollars for it," writes Philip H. Brant of Monteith, Manitoba, after having used it for a severe wound and for frozen fingers, with, as he says, "astonishing good results."

The Empress Elizabeth of Austria is said to submit herself to the severest regimen in order to retain the beautiful figure for which she is noted. She fasts morning and evening, making her only regular meal at noon, of grilled meat, biscuits and a glass of wine.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.

DEAR SIRS,—I can truly say Hagar's Pectoral Balsam is the best remedy ever made for coughs and colds. It is worth its weight in gold. HARRY PALMER, Lorneville, Ont.

Eight cars loaded with human hair arrived in Paris recently, consigned to dealers in that merchandise. The hair came from India and China, whence thousands of pounds are annually sent to England and France. This traffic, a foreign medical journal says, is the cause of the introduction of many diseases in Europe.

CONSTIPATION CURED.

The following extract from a letter from Mr. Jas. M. Carson, Banff, N.W.T., will speak for itself:—"I have been troubled with constipation and general debility and was induced to use your B.B.B. through seeing your advertisement. I now take great pleasure in recommending it to all my friends, as it completely cured me."

"Lord Salisbury sits for his photograph as if carved out of stone and never speaks," says the New York Herald. "Lord Rosebery, although he dislikes sitting, makes a good subject, but Mr. Goschen, through inability to restrain the spasmodic twitching of the lips, spoils plate after plate. Lord Randolph Churchill is also a plate spoiler. He hates sitting, is very irritable and tugs at his beard till the last moment. Mr. Balfour looks bored but amiable, and has a difficulty in disposing of his legs. The Duke of Devonshire has to be carefully watched. He has been known to yawn in the middle of one of his own speeches, and carries this habit into the studio."

We are somewhat more than ourselves in our sleep; and the slumber of the body seems to be but the waking of the soul. It is the ligation of sense, but the liberty of reason, and our waking conceptions do not match the fancies of our sleep.—Sir I. Browne.

OUR FAMILY PHYSICIAN. DEAR SIRS,—I was troubled with eczema (salt rheum) for about two years, but I did not bother with it until it began to itch and spread over my hand. I then took four bottles of B.B.B., which completely drove it away. It was by my son's advice I took B.B.B., as B.B.B. is our family physician. J. S. MILLS, Collingwood, Ont.
